Learn to protect those who can no longer protect themselves

Having an individual's best interests at heart is key to being a successful guardian ad litem. And every year, State Bar of Wisconsin PINNACLE® makes sure these caring counselors have up-to-date knowledge, whether they're experienced practitioners or new to the field.

2014 Adult Guardian ad Litem Training helps to establish and reinforce a solid foundation. You'll learn about:

- Adult GAL basics: Guardianship, protective placements, Watts reviews, temporary guardianships
- Ethics and the GAL: Competency requirements, the value of communication, handling post-appointment conflicts

To serve members who attend annually, Adult GAL 2014 presents a variety of topics in depth. This year for example:

- Dementia and challenging communications
- Community resources update
- Guide to supportive services

There will also be a special segment giving the perspective of Dane County Corporation Counsel, Dyann L. Hafner. And finally, you can earn ethics credits at the last segment.

Plan now to attend Adult GAL 2014 and learn from respected professionals in the field how to successfully protect proposed wards who can no longer protect themselves.

Who should attend:

- Guardians ad litem
- Elder law attorneys
- Family law attorneys
- Health law attorneys

How you'll benefit:

- Learn what guardianship is, define protective placement
- Understand competency requirements, the value of communication, and handling post-appointment conflicts
