

About the Supplement Authors

Hon. Cynthia M. Davis has been a Milwaukee County Circuit Court judge in Branch 21 since 2016. She has presided over calendars including Domestic Violence/Child Abuse, General Crimes-Misdemeanors, Treatment Courts/Early Intervention, and Small Claims. Judge Davis gained experience in both criminal and civil law, having served as an assistant district attorney in Milwaukee County, a business law associate at Foley & Lardner, and a judicial clerk to now-retired Justice David Prosser of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Judge Davis graduated with honors from Marquette University Law School, where she served as editor in chief of the Marquette Law Review. Judge Davis authored the chapter on treatment courts in Mental Health Law in Wisconsin: A Guide for Legal and Healthcare Professionals (State Bar of Wis. 2021), the chapter on bench trials in Wisconsin Trial Practice (State Bar of Wis. 4th ed. 2019 & Supp.), and Everything I Needed to Learn in Life, I Learned in Treatment Court, 94 Wis. Law. 37 (Oct. 2021). She is a member of the committee that updates the Criminal and Traffic volume of the Wisconsin Judicial Benchbook, is vice chairperson of the Brookfield Academy board, is on the Marquette University Law School Alumni Association board, and serves on committees including the Judicial Conduct Advisory Committee, the Friends of Milwaukee County Treatment Courts Inc. Advisory Committee, and the Treatment Court Best Practices and Record-Keeping Committee.

Victoria M. Karcher is a shareholder at Habush Habush & Rottier S.C., Wausau. She received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2007 and her J.D. (magna cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin in 2011. She represents injured parties in personal-injury cases, such as those involving motor vehicle accidents, safe-place claims, dog attacks, and other tort-based claims.

Angeline M. Koch is a shareholder with Crivello, Nichols & Hall, S.C., with more than 15 years of experience as a litigator and adviser. Her primary areas of practice include health care, property law, civil rights, and products liability. Ms. Koch earned a master's degree in freshwater science from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee School of Freshwater Science and is actively involved in conserving and protecting the Great Lakes and freshwater ecosystems.

Beau W. Krueger is a civil defense attorney with Nash, Spindler, Grimstad & McCracken LLP. His practice focuses on insurance matters such as construction-defect and personal-injury litigation. He received his B.A. in 2016 from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and his J.D. in 2019 from Marquette University Law School, where he also earned the National Sports Law Institute’s Sports Law Certificate. He has been with Nash, Spindler, Grimstad & McCracken LLP since graduating from law school. Beyond work, Mr. Krueger enjoys being active, traveling, and cheering on the Bucks, Brewers, and Packers.

E. Edgar Lin is the Wisconsin counsel at Protect Democracy. He was formerly a criminal defense and civil rights attorney in both private practice and public defense. Mr. Lin has extensive litigation experience, including obtaining numerous “not guilty” verdicts after jury trials. Outside the courtroom, he regularly presents at statewide and national conferences. Mr. Lin is a member of Wisconsin’s Public Safety and Criminal Justice Reform Policy Advisory Council. He also serves on the boards of the Wisconsin Justice Initiative and the Asian American Pacific Islander Coalition of Wisconsin.

Mindy Nolan is a criminal defense attorney at Ahmad & Associates, LLC. Nolan concentrates in complex trial-level felony litigation and has obtained dozens of “not guilty” verdicts on behalf of clients. In 2023, she was awarded both the Advocate’s Prize–Martin Hansen Memorial Award for a not-guilty verdict in a first-degree intentional homicide trial and the Kuchler-Nicholson-Stilling Sensitive Crimes Award for not-guilty verdicts in a sexual assault trial from the Wisconsin Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys. She is also a member of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and is an active volunteer with Marquette University Law School’s Volunteer Legal Clinic for Expungement and Pardons.

Jacob R. Reis is a shareholder and works in the Appleton office of Habush Habush & Rottier S.C. He received his undergraduate degree from St. Norbert College in 1998 (magna cum laude) and graduated in the top 10% of his class in 2003 from Marquette University Law School. Mr. Reis is a former president of the Outagamie County Bar Association, the Brown County Bar Association, and the Marquette University Law School Alumni Association. Mr. Reis is an adjunct professor at the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he teaches trial advocacy.