

About the Authors

Brian D. Anderson is a trial attorney with the Everson Law Firm in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Mr. Anderson defends insurance companies and insureds, litigates insurance coverage issues, and practices appellate advocacy in state and federal courts. He also defends physicians and hospitals in civil litigation and administrative actions. Prior to joining the Everson Law Firm, Mr. Anderson was an assistant professor teaching international and comparative law subjects, courses in legal research, and a required first-year course at the College of Law at Ohio Northern University. He was also engaged in law reform projects as a rule of law advisor in eastern Europe, the Balkans, and sub-Saharan Africa. Mr. Anderson earned his B.A. in political science from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, his master's degree in information science from the University of Illinois, and his J.D. and LL.M. from Ohio Northern University.

Erik M. Gustafson is an associate at Borgelt, Powell, Peterson & Frauen, S.C.'s Milwaukee office. His practice focuses on first-party property insurance coverage, third-party liability insurance coverage, appellate practice, and motion practice. He received his B.A. (summa cum laude) from Creighton University and his J.D. (magna cum laude) from Marquette University Law School. Before joining Borgelt Powell, Mr. Gustafson clerked for Justice Michael Gableman of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Mr. Gustafson is a member of Wisconsin Defense Counsel, the Federalist Society, and the State Bar of Wisconsin. In addition to Wisconsin state courts, Mr. Gustafson is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, the Western District of Wisconsin, and the Central District of Illinois and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Andrew B. Hebl is a partner at Boardman Clark LLP in Madison. He chairs the firm's Litigation Practice Group. Mr. Hebl is also past president of Wisconsin Defense Counsel. He has extensive experience representing insurance companies in insurance coverage disputes and has handled such cases before the Wisconsin Court of Appeals and the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Mr. Hebl is past editor of the Wisconsin Civil Trial Journal and past contributing author to the tort law chapter of the Annual Survey of Wisconsin Law. He is a 2005 graduate of the University of Wisconsin and earned his J.D. (summa cum laude) from Michigan State University in 2008. Following law school, Mr. Hebl clerked for Justice Patience Roggensack of the Wisconsin Supreme Court.

David P. Hollander is a senior associate in Stafford Rosenbaum LLP's Madison office. He is a skilled trial and appellate litigator, having represented clients in a wide variety of complex disputes across a dozen states. Mr. Hollander's commercial practice focuses on shareholder, real estate and construction, intellectual property, and insurance coverage disputes. He has represented policyholders in coverage disputes involving insurers' duties to defend underlying environmental, property, personal injury, and fraud claims.

Melita M. Mullen is a shareholder at Bell, Moore & Richter, S.C., Madison, where she practices in civil litigation, insurance defense, and insurance coverage litigation. She received her B.A. (with honors) from Vassar College and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School. She is admitted to practice in Wisconsin and before the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin. Ms. Mullen is a contributing author to the State Bar of Wisconsin publications Anderson on Wisconsin Insurance Law and The Law of Damages in Wisconsin.

Jerome C. Mohsen is an associate at Gass Turek LLC in Milwaukee. His practice focuses on commercial litigation, shareholder disputes, consumer actions, and insurance disputes. He received his D.E.U.G., License, and Maîtrise (with honors) from Université Bordeaux Montaigne, his B.A. (magna cum laude) from Carroll University, and his J.D. (magna cum laude) from Marquette University Law School, where he served as senior comment editor of the Marquette Law Review. Mr. Mohsen is admitted to practice in all Wisconsin state and federal courts and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

Patrick S. Nolan is a partner with the Milwaukee office of Quarles & Brady LLP, focusing on products liability, personal injury, and insurance coverage litigation. He attended the London School of Economics and Political Science (1991–92), received his B.S. from Boston College in 1993, and received his J.D. in 1997 from Marquette University Law School, where he served as managing editor of the Marquette Law Review. Mr. Nolan is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Defense Research Institute, Wisconsin Defense Counsel, and the Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association.

Kelsey A. Pelegrin is an associate at Bell, Moore & Richter, S.C. in Madison. She practices civil litigation, insurance defense, and insurance coverage litigation. She received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and her J.D. from Marquette University Law School. Ms. Pelegrin is admitted to practice in Wisconsin state courts and before the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin.

John P. Pinzl is a shareholder at the Madison office of von Briesen & Roper, S.C., where he practices in civil litigation with a focus on insurance defense and insurance coverage litigation. He received his B.S. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Mr. Pinzl is a member of the Dane County Bar Association, Wisconsin Defense Counsel, and the State Bar of Wisconsin. He is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

David J. Turek is a partner at Gass Turek LLC and concentrates on complex civil litigation and insurance coverage disputes. Mr. Turek graduated from Carthage College and earned his law degree (summa cum laude) from Marquette University. He is a member of the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel and a Senior Fellow in the Litigation Counsel of America and frequently speaks to other lawyers about trial practice, damages, and insurance coverage issues.

Monte E. Weiss is the founder of Weiss Law Office, S.C. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law. His practice is focused on insurance coverage matters for insurance companies and policyholders and on civil litigation matters, including the defense of bodily injury, property damage, and professional malpractice claims. Mr. Weiss has also lectured and written extensively on insurance coverage topics. Associated with his work on insurance issues, Mr. Weiss has drafted personal lines insurance policies, including homeowner and automobile policies. Mr. Weiss has argued several cases before the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, the Wisconsin Supreme Court, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. As of 2023, Mr. Weiss is a member of the executive committee for Wisconsin Defense Counsel, an organization he has served for years in many capacities including as founder of its Insurance Law Committee. Mr. Weiss is admitted to practice before all Wisconsin courts, the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Additional information about Mr. Weiss is available at his website: www.mweisslaw.net.