

About the Authors

Craig W. Albee is the Executive Director at the Federal Defender Services of Wisconsin, Inc. From 2000 to 2011, he was a partner in the criminal defense firm of Glynn, Fitzgerald & Albee. Before that he practiced with Shellow, Shellow & Glynn. Following his 1990 graduation from the University of Wisconsin Law School, he served as law clerk for Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice William A. Bablitch.

Jennifer L. Amundsen is the founder and principal at Amundsen Law Firm, LLC. While she primarily practices in the areas of business, intellectual property, and technology, she has also developed a niche practice in canine and equine law, advising owners and breeders of companion animals (primarily dogs) and horses on issues pertaining to their businesses and hobbies. She has represented dog clubs and equine groups, veterinarians, and boarding facilities, and she is a frequent speaker on legal topics pertaining to animals. Ms. Amundsen is a 2003 graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School (J.D.) and a 1994 graduate of Kalamazoo College (B.A.).

Kathleen R. Avoles is a shareholder with Bakke Norman, S.C., and a member of the trial and litigation team, representing clients in northwestern Wisconsin. Kate was admitted to practice law in 2007 and concentrates in family law, employment law, and criminal defense. Her family-law focus involves divorce and postdivorce matters, custody disputes, and paternity actions. She received her J.D. from William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota, and was the recipient of the 2012 Martin Hanson Advocates Prize by the Wisconsin Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers for successful defense at trial charging criminal homicide. Kate was elected in 2013 as the St. Croix County Bar representative to the Criminal Justice Collaborating Council, and now serves as executive vice chair; she previously served on the board of the St. Croix Valley Bar Association, and regularly volunteers her time at the free legal clinics in her community and surrounding counties.

Richard L. Binder is a retired partner with the firm of Rohde Dales, LLP, in Sheboygan. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin in 1971 and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1973. For more than 20 years, he was the reporter for the Solo/Small Firm & General Practice News.

Daniel A. Blasiolo, Ph.D., is a patent agent in the Intellectual Property Practice Group at the Madison office of DeWitt LLP. He received his Ph.D. in biochemistry from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and is registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. His practice concentrates on patent prosecution, particularly in the area of biotechnology and medical-related technology.

Jesse B. Blocher is a shareholder at Habush Habush & Rottier S.C.® and focuses his practice on personal-injury claims. Mr. Blocher is a Board Certified Civil Trial Advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. His litigation, trial, and appellate experience spans a broad range of civil matters including cases arising out of automobile accidents, premises liability, environmental pollution, products liability, and insurance coverage. Mr. Blocher is a summa cum laude graduate of Marquette University Law School.

Bruce T. Block is a shareholder in the Milwaukee office of Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c., where he serves as chair of the firm's real estate department. He received his undergraduate degree in 1976 from the University of Wisconsin and his law degree in 1979 from Boston University. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, Milwaukee Bar Association, and American College of Real Estate Lawyers. Mr. Block has lectured extensively on numerous real estate-related issues, with particular emphasis on zoning and land use, tax incremental finance, historic preservation, and affordable housing. He is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee, a trustee of the Public Policy Forum, and chair of the UWM Real Estate Foundation.

Kyle G. Borkenhagen is a partner with the firm of Rohde Dales, LLP, in Sheboygan. He received his B.A. from U.W.–Stevens Point in 2008 and his J.D. from Indiana University in 2010. His practice primarily focuses on personal injury cases, insurance disputes, and commercial litigation.

Drew Cochrane is Chief Operating Officer and General Counsel for the New Glarus Brewing Company. He previously spent 15 years in private practice, including 11 years with the Madison office of Stafford Rosenbaum LLP, where he was a Senior Partner and a member of the firm’s board of directors. Mr. Cochrane received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Wisconsin in 1994 and 1999, respectively. Before entering private practice, Mr. Cochrane interned with the Wisconsin Supreme Court and worked as a law clerk in the Wisconsin Governor’s Office and as a legislative aide in the Wisconsin State Assembly.

Kyle W. Engelke is a partner with the Madison law firm of Stafford Rosenbaum LLP. He received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Wisconsin in 2008 and 2013, respectively. Mr. Engelke is a trial lawyer whose practice includes litigating commercial matters involving shareholder disputes and claims of tortious interference and misappropriation of trade secrets. Mr. Engelke is a member of the James E. Doyle American Inns of Court, appointee to the State Bar of Wisconsin Bench and Bar Committee, and board member of the Dane County Bar Association where he co-chairs the Membership Committee.

Stephen M. Glynn is a retired Milwaukee criminal defense lawyer. A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, he received his B.S. in 1967 and his J.D. in 1970 (cum laude). Mr. Glynn is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and a past member of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and the Wisconsin Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He is a past member and chair of the board of the Criminal Justice Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin, currently a board member of the Remington Center at the University of Wisconsin Law School, and an emeritus fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers. He has served as a law clerk for the Hon. James E. Doyle, of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin. Mr. Glynn was president of the Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee from 1975 to 1995 and the Wisconsin Trust Account Foundation from 2004 to 2006. He is a coauthor of “Pretrial Motions” in Defense of Criminal Cases in Wisconsin (UW–Extension) and lectures at CLE evidence and criminal defense programs.

Jennifer L. Gregor is a shareholder in the Madison office of Godfrey & Kahn, S.C. As a versatile intellectual property (IP) lawyer, she advises companies on their IP portfolios and disputes. She received her bachelor’s degree from the University of Wisconsin–Madison in 2000, majoring in bacteriology and entomology. Jennifer received her J.D. from DePaul University College of Law in 2005. She is the chair of the firm’s Intellectual Property Litigation group. Jennifer is a past-president of the Western District of Wisconsin Bar Association and has significant experience in intellectual property litigation, including copyright, patent, trademark, advertising, unfair competition, right of publicity, and trade secret cases. She is also active in the International Trademark Association as well as numerous community organizations.

Shawna Guinn is an assistant corporation counsel in the Dane County Corporation Counsel’s Office. She handles CHIPs and TPR cases.

Michael S. Heffernan practiced for many years with Foley & Lardner, LLP. Now retired, he limits his practice to appellate consultation and family law mediation. He received his B.A. and J.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and served as a law clerk for the Wisconsin Supreme Court and as a staff attorney for the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. Mr. Heffernan is the author of Appellate Practice and Procedure in Wisconsin. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin. He is also a member of the Appellate Practice Section of the State Bar and is a past chair of the section.

Margaret Wrenn Hickey practices in the areas of divorce, family law, and elder law, including trusts for disabled persons, Title 19, and guardianships. She is a shareholder with Becker, Hickey & Poster, S.C., Milwaukee, and received her B.A. from Marquette University (1982, summa cum laude), where she was Phi Beta Kappa, and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School (1986, cum laude). Margaret served on the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors (2005–15; Chair, 2006–07, Treasurer, 2009–11), is on the Diversity and Inclusion Oversight Committee and the Leadership Development Committee, and has been chair of the Elder Law and Special Needs Section and Family Law Section boards. She is a past president of the Milwaukee Bar Association. Margaret lectures frequently on elder law and family law at local, state, and national bar meetings and to community groups. Margaret is a member of the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Bar Association, the Waukesha Bar Association, the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, and the Association for Women Lawyers and is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation and the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers.

Christopher J. Hussin is a partner in and chair of the Patent, Trademark and Copyright Team of the Madison law firm of Boardman & Clark LLP. Chris focuses on all areas of patent, trademark, and copyright law and manages the trademark portfolios of a number of international companies. He assists clients in brand development and management, the selection and clearance of trademarks, the registration and enforcement of trademarks and copyrights in the United States and internationally, and in intellectual property-related litigation. He is also experienced in drafting licenses, assignments, and other intellectual property-related contracts and business documents. Chris received his B.S. in civil engineering from the University of Wisconsin and his law degree from the University of Denver College of Law.

Benjamin T. Kurten chairs Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c.'s Immigration Law Group and is a shareholder in the firm's Labor and Employment and International Practices. Ben has over 20 years of immigration law experience and represents both large and small clients across the country in a variety of industries, including manufacturing, health care, financial services, technology, entertainment, consumer goods, and agriculture. His work includes assisting clients with navigating the immigration regulations to be able to employ foreign-born talent as well as to ensure their compliance with U.S. immigration regulations. He also regularly assists clients with family-based immigration matters as well as naturalization and citizenship matters. Ben has successfully argued removal, asylum, and employment cases before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, Board of Immigration Appeals, and the Administrative Appeals Office. In addition, Ben is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association, is a frequent speaker and panelist on the topic of immigration, has written numerous articles that have been published in professional journals as well as online, and has edited the Immigration Law chapter of the Wisconsin Attorney's Desk Reference for many years. Ben graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1997 and lives in Grafton with his wife and two sons.

Eric W. Lengell is an attorney with Zilske Law Firm S.C. He assists employers, insurance carriers, and third-party administrators with all phases of worker's compensation, from initial claim handling through formal hearings and appeals. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Marquette University Law School, where he served on the Marquette Law Review.

Jack Longert is in private practice with a primary concentration in advocating for disabled and low-income individuals seeking government benefits. He also currently works as a consultant with the TMG

IRIS program in southwestern Wisconsin. He was executive director of the Wisconsin Pooled and Community Trust organization (WisPACT, Inc.) from May 2007 through November 2010. He has a B.A. and B.S. from the State University of New York at Buffalo and a J.D. from the University of Illinois College of Law in 1978. Mr. Longert practiced for more than 20 years in various Legal Aid and Legal Services programs in Wisconsin and North Dakota and also served as an Assistant Clinical Professor at the University of Wisconsin Law School. His practice included the areas of guardianship and protective placement while serving as a staff guardian ad litem and civil commitment defense counsel for the Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee and working with law students to represent patients at the Mendota Mental Health Institute. Mr. Longert also managed the operations of the Men's Drop-In Shelter and related facilities in Madison from 2002 to 2007.

Sally Mohr Lunde is a member of the Law Offices of David J. Carlson, S.C. in Waukesha, Wisconsin. She currently handles probate, trust administration, residential real estate, and estate planning matters. She is a graduate of Carroll College, Waukesha, WI and University of Wisconsin Law School. She served as the register in probate, probate registrar, and court commissioner for Waukesha County from 1993–2017. She is the recipient of the 2017 Lifetime Achievement Award from the Waukesha County Bar Association and recipient of a Commendation from the Wisconsin Supreme Court for services rendered in the areas of probate, guardianship, and model form creation. She has provided over 30 years of service to the citizens of Waukesha County and Southeast Wisconsin in the areas of probate, guardianship, and estate planning.

Steven W. Martin retired as a shareholder in the law firm of Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c., in Waukesha. He received his B.A. from the University of Illinois and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Waukesha County Bar Association. Mr. Martin is a coauthor of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Wisconsin Construction Lien Law Handbook.

Avery J. Mayne is an elder and special needs law attorney with Walny Legal Group LLC. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Missouri and her law degree from Marquette University Law School. Ms. Mayne focuses her practice on issues of asset protection, public benefit qualification and appeals, guardianships and protective placements, and financial exploitation of elderly persons and persons with disabilities. She has practiced in the area of guardianships throughout her career, serving as petitioner, advocate counsel, guardian ad litem, and guardian of the estate.

Mary Ann McCarthy is a sole practitioner in Milwaukee, concentrating her practice in the area of landlord-tenant law. She received her undergraduate accounting degree in 1979 from the University of Wisconsin and her law degree in 1982 from Marquette University. She was a former chair of the Milwaukee Young Lawyers Association Landlord-Tenant Hotline committee, and taught landlord-tenant law at Marquette University Continuing Education. She is a member of the Association for Women Lawyers. She is also a licensed Wisconsin real estate broker.

Joseph T. Miotke is a registered patent attorney, patent litigator, and partner with DeWitt LLP, one of Wisconsin's largest law firms. He practices in the intellectual property (IP) area with experience in patent, trademark, copyright, and trade secret matters. He is a frequent author and speaker to international audiences regarding IP licensing, IP monetization, patent litigation, ethics, and other IP-related topics. He earned his B.S. in civil engineering from Marquette University and graduated magna cum laude from Marquette University Law School.

Robert J. Misy is an emeritus member of the Wisconsin State Bar Association and is a past chair of the General Practice Section. He received his A.B. from Dartmouth College and LL.B. from Harvard University.

Robert J. Misy, Jr. is a shareholder at Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c., in Milwaukee. He received his M.B.A. from Vanderbilt University's Owen Graduate School of Management, his J.D. from Vanderbilt University School of Law, and his LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center. He was previously with the I.R.S. Chief Counsel and is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the California Bar Association, and the District of Columbia Bar Association. A frequent writer and speaker on taxation and ethics, Mr. Misy has presented at continuing education programs in many states and countries.

Teresa A. Mueller is Labor Relations Counsel for Brand Industrial Services, LLC, a multi-service contractor offering expertise in access, scaffolding, insulation, fireproofing, forming and shoring, surface preparation and coatings serving the petrochemical, oil and gas, power, refining, marine, manufacturing, transportation, and commercial construction industries worldwide. Ms. Mueller received her B.S. from Edgewood College in 1989 and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1992. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Construction & Public Contract Law and Labor & Employment Law sections, a member of the Dane County Bar Association, and a past member of the National Association of Women in Construction and the AGC of America's Labor & Employment Law Council.

Brittany S. Ogden is a partner at the Madison office of Quarles & Brady, LLP and the chair of its Wisconsin office's Bankruptcy, Restructuring & Creditor's Rights Practice Group. With her commercial litigation and bankruptcy practice in state and federal courts, she focuses on creditor's rights work, regularly representing financial institutions, equipment finance companies, secured and unsecured creditors, loan servicers, trustees and creditor committees. She is commonly involved with Chapter 7, 11, 12 and 13 bankruptcy proceedings and receiverships, including Chapter 128 cases. She routinely represents clients in the agricultural industry. Brittany obtained her undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and graduated from the Syracuse University College of Law. She is admitted to practice law in the state of New York, the state of Wisconsin, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York, and the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin. She is a member of the American Bar Association, the American Bankruptcy Institute, Turnaround Management Association, International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation, and the James E. Doyle American Inns of Court. She is an active member of the Equipment Leasing and Finance Association, serving as a co-chair for its Amicus Brief Committee and a member of its Service Provider's Committee.

Eve Dennison Pollock is a 1999 graduate of the University of the Wisconsin Law School and holds a B.A. from Luther College in Decorah, Iowa. She has been in private practice with W.R. Stewart & Associates, S.C. in Madison since 2000. Since 2005, Ms. Pollock has served on the Dane County contract for guardians ad litem in minor and adult guardianship, juvenile, and paternity actions. She currently serves as the GAL liaison, managing relations between the contract guardians ad litem and the judges and court system and maintains a private practice focusing on guardian ad litem work in family court. Ms. Pollock is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and its sections on Family Law and Children & the Law. She has given presentations on guardian ad litem work in Wisconsin at the "Through the Eyes of a Child" conference, State Bar of Wisconsin seminars, and various trainings.

Heather B. Poster is a shareholder with Becker, Hickey & Poster, S.C., Milwaukee, and practices family law, estate planning, and elder law, including trusts for disabled persons, Title 19 planning, and guardianship. She received her B.A. in behavioral science from the University of Wisconsin in 1999 (with distinction) and her J.D. from Marquette Law School in 2002. Ms. Poster is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin Elder Law and Special Needs Section board. She is the past chair (2007, 2012) of the board for WisPACT, Inc., the nonprofit organization that oversees pooled and community trusts for elderly and disabled persons, and is a frequent contributor to the Elder Law & Special Needs Journal of Wisconsin. Ms. Poster is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Bar Association, the Association for Women Lawyers, and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorney's Steering Committee on Trusts and Special Needs Trusts. She lectures extensively on Title 19 (Medicaid) planning for disabled and elderly persons, special needs and pooled trust planning, and guardianship and advanced directive issues.

Roy L. Prange, Jr. is a retired partner who practiced in the Madison office of Quarles & Brady, LLP. He received his B.A. from the University of Iowa, his M.A. from the Ohio State University, and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Prange has lectured at the University of Wisconsin Law School and State Bar of Wisconsin seminars and has also given presentations to various credit groups. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, a fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy, and former director and chair of the Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Creditors' Rights Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin.

Amanda R. Rabe is the Civil Unit Lead Attorney at Wisconsin Judicare, Inc. in Wausau, Wisconsin. Her practice includes a variety of areas, including family law, victim rights, and public benefits. Rabe staffs a clinic for pro se divorce litigants and works closely with community agencies in the Judicare service area to provide services to victims and survivors of domestic abuse and sexual assault. She is the current chair of the Public Interest Law Section. Before coming to Judicare, she worked at a nonprofit in Milwaukee with a focus on family law for low-income and indigent individuals. She received her undergraduate degree in Political Theory and Constitutional Democracy from Michigan State University and her law degree from Marquette University Law School.

Amanda Ramaker is an assistant corporation counsel in the Dane County Corporation Counsel's Office. She handles CHIPS, TPR, and chapter 48 guardianship cases.

Eliza M. Reyes is an attorney in the Madison office of Steinhilber Swanson LLP. Since 2005, her practice has focused on financial matters, primarily representation of debtors, creditors, trustees, landlords, tenants, investors, and most other parties in interest with issues before the bankruptcy, federal, and state courts; including individual and commercial bankruptcy filings under Chapters 7, 13, 12, and 11; objections to discharge; fraudulent transfer issues; asset valuation issues; adversary proceedings; defense of foreclosure actions; debt collection; contract disputes; real estate matters; and individual, agricultural and commercial reorganizations. She is a member of the Bankruptcy, Insolvency, and Creditors' Rights Section and the Solo and Small Firm Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Ms. Reyes has also been a presenter at conferences on various topics related to financial matters and bankruptcy and is an author for two State Bar of Wisconsin publications: the Creditor/Debtor Chapter of the Wisconsin Attorney's Desk Reference and the Creditors' Rights & Remedies chapter of Marital Property Law in Wisconsin. Ms. Reyes is a 1991 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee with a degree in mass communication/journalism, and she received her J.D. from the John Marshall Law School in 1997.

Theresa L. Roetter is a partner at DeWitt LLP in Madison, Wisconsin. She has practiced law in Madison since 1999 and began her legal career in Green and Lafayette Counties. She received her B.A. from St. Norbert College, with honors, in 1988 and her J.D. from Marquette University in 1993. Theresa focuses her practice on adoption, surrogacy, guardianship, and other family law matters related to children. She has served as counsel in hundreds of adoptions and is a fellow, past board member, and past vice president of the Academy of Adoption and Assisted Reproduction Attorneys. In 2012, Theresa received the governor's "Champion of Adoption" award and was named an "Angel in Adoption" by the Congressional Coalition on Adoption Institute in Washington, D.C. Theresa is an active member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, serving the Children & the Law Section on its legislative committee, and as a former board member and past section chair.

Shelley J. Safer retired from the practice of law in 2008. She was a member of the Madison law firm of Lathrop & Clark LLP (now known as Boardman and Clark LLP) and represented clients exclusively in the area of intellectual property law, including trademarks, copyrights, domain names, and unfair competition. Her practice covered all aspects of protection within the United States and abroad, including trademark selection and clearance, brand development and enforcement, prosecution of trademark and copyright applications, portfolio management, licensing, infringement opinions, and litigation.

Charles S. Sara is a registered patent attorney and a partner in the Madison law firm of DeWitt LLP. He specializes in United States and foreign intellectual property prosecution and protection, involving patents, trademarks, trade dress, copyrights, trade secrets, litigation, unfair competition, and related matters. He is also experienced in negotiating, drafting, and evaluating technology licenses, assignments, and transfer agreements. A graduate of the University of North Carolina with further graduate work at Virginia Tech, Mr. Sara earned his law degree from the George Mason University School of Law.

Kyle R. Schaffer is a member of the Bakke Norman, S.C., trial and litigation team. He received his J.D. from the University of St. Thomas School of Law in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and was admitted to practice law in Wisconsin in 2016. Kyle practices primarily in family law, construction law, and criminal law. His family practice involves divorce and postdivorce matters, custody disputes, and paternity actions. Kyle is an active member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the St. Croix Valley Bar Association, and the American Legion Butler-Harmon Post 80. Kyle also enjoys serving his community and his country as an infantry company commander in the Wisconsin Army National Guard.

Timothy G. Schally is a partner with and chair of the Tax Practice Group of Michael Best & Friedrich LLP. He received his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1985. He is a former chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Tax Section and has lectured and written on a wide variety of tax subjects, including income, property, sales, and use taxes. His publications include Tax Consequences of Contingent Payment Transactions and The Complete Guide to Wisconsin Sales and Use Taxes. He has also served as an adjunct faculty member in tax law at the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he taught courses in the federal income taxation of corporations.

Madeline Schlederer is an associate in the Milwaukee office of Godfrey & Kahn, S.C. She received her bachelor's degree from the Purdue University in 2013, majoring in civil engineering. Madeline received her J.D. from Indiana University College of Law in 2017. She has experience in intellectual property prosecution and litigation, particularly with respect to copyrights, patents, trademarks, privacy and rights of publicity, and unfair competition.

Tracey L. Schwalbe is the former general counsel for the Wisconsin Labor and Industry Review Commission in Madison. She was formerly the unemployment insurance research attorney for the Division of Unemployment Insurance in the Department of Workforce Development. Before her state service, she worked in private practice for many years. She received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, a member and past chair of the Indian Law Section, and past president of the Green County Bar Association.

Megan L. Sprecher is a graduate of Indiana University-Bloomington and the University of St. Thomas School of Law. Megan is the Immigration and Poverty Law Attorney at End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Coalition Against Domestic Violence. In her role at End Abuse, Megan provides technical assistance and trainings to domestic abuse programs, courts, attorneys, law enforcement, social service agencies, health-care providers, and others on legal issues faced by domestic abuse survivors. She also engages in state and federal policy work impacting domestic abuse survivors.

and serves on the Department of Children and Families' Domestic Violence Taskforce. Before joining End Abuse, Megan was a Senior Attorney for the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland for eight years, where she managed the program's medical-legal partnership and represented mainly Spanish-speaking clients in a variety of civil matters.

Gary S. Stanislawski is a shareholder with the Zilske Law Firm, S.C., in Brookfield, Wisconsin. He received his B.A., in 1994, and his J.D., in 1997, from Marquette University. His practice concentrates on defending worker's compensation claims and advising clients on related issues. He is a member of the Defense Research Institute.

John C. Talis is an assistant corporation counsel for Dane County. From 1991 to 2001, he was in private practice. He has been an assistant corporation counsel for Dane County since 2001, where he has been responsible for numerous CHIPS, TPR, and guardianship cases. He is a member of the State Bar Children & the Law Section.

Lawrence Alan Towers is in private practice in Milwaukee. He was formerly a law professor at Marquette University Law School, where he taught civil procedure and trial-related courses. He received his A.B. from Kenyon College in 1974, his M.P.A. from California State University in 1978, and his J.D. from Hastings College of the Law in 1981. He has given presentations and written extensively on the subject of automobile warranty law, authored several amicus curiae briefs, and represented the successful appellants in Vultaggio v. General Motors Corp., 145 Wis. 2d 874 (Ct. App. 1988), and Dobbratz v. PACCAR, Inc., 2002 WI App 138, 256 Wis. 2d 205.

Meg Vergeront is a partner with the Madison law firm of Stafford Rosenbaum LLP. She received her undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Wisconsin in 1989 and 1993, respectively. A large part of Ms. Vergeront's practice is devoted to employment law and business litigation, including trade secrets litigation. She is a current member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Labor and Employment Law Section and is a past chair of the section's board. Ms. Vergeront is a member of the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Dane County Bar Association, and the Western District of Wisconsin Bar Association.

Heidi Acker Yelk is the director of reference services at the Wisconsin State Law Library. Before joining the Wisconsin State Law Library, she worked as a law firm librarian. She received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin and her master's degree in library and information science from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. She has served as a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Staff-Client Education Committee. She is a frequent contributor to Legal Information Alert and writes extensively on computer-assisted legal research.

Peter M. Young is a shareholder at Habush Habush & Rottier S.C.®, where he represents injured people and their loved ones. He has tried cases throughout Wisconsin and has represented people throughout the United States. He practices in the areas of personal injury, product liability, and nursing home negligence. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with degrees in legal studies and political science and earned a J.D. from Marquette University Law School.

The following authors have contributed to this book in the past:

Betsy J. Abramson

Thomas W. Anderson

Gary L. Bakke, Bakke Norman, S.C.

Carol Bannon

Virginia M. Bartelt, Bartelt Grob, S.C.

Thomas J. Basting, Sr., Madison

Barbara J. Becker, Bayside

Maren Beermann, Fitchburg

Cyrus Behroozi

Eugenia G. Carter, Husch Blackwell LLP

Stacia Conneely, Legal Action of Wisconsin

Anne Daugherty-Leiter, Middleton

Kevin J. Demet, Demet Law Firm LLP

Margadette Demet, Demet & Demet LLC

Thomas E. Dixon, Jr.

Kevin R. Du, Exact Sciences Corp.

William Ebbott

Jerome M. Elliott

Jon Evenson

Navid Fanaeian, Foley & Lardner LLP

Kelly S. Fisher, Dane County Corporation Counsel's Office

Charles P. Graupner, Milwaukee

Ann Green

Dyann Hafner, Dane County Corporation Counsel's Office

Robert Horowitz

John L. Horwich, Trust for Public Land, St. Paul, MN

Mark Hoskins

Susan Howe Rauti, Dane County Corporation Counsel's Office

Kerry L. Gabrielson, Madison

Sara Berman Jensen, Carrier Corp.

Gregory G. Johnson, Thiensville

Mary Kasparek, Dane County Corporation Counsel's Office

Jessica King, Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren SC

Karl L. Kliminski, Boushea, Segall & Kliminski

Grace Knutson

Deanne M. Koll, Bakke Norman, S.C.

Katharine F. Kucharski, Court Commissioner, Milwaukee County Circuit Court

Saejung Lee

Autumn L. Lindquist, Nelson & Lindquist, S.C.

James W. McNeilly, Jr., Wisconsin Department of Revenue

Tess Meuer, Madison

John C. Mitby, Hurley Burish, S.C.

John D. Neal, Stafford, Neal & Soule, SC

Barbara A. Neider, Stafford Rosenbaum LLP

Lori Nitzel, Fort Collins, CO

Angela R. Olson, Hudson

Boris V. Ouchakof, Madison

Nancy Paul

Hon. James D. Peterson, U.S. District Judge, W.D. Wis.

James L. Pflasterer, Monona

Molly Plunkett

Reince R. Priebus, Michael Best & Friedrich, LLP

Joseph E. Puchner, Quarles & Brady LLP

Robert A. Ramsdell

Gary Rehfeldt, Evansville

Katherine M. Reynolds, Michael Best & Friedrich, LLP

Jennifer M. Schank, Fuhrman & Dodge SC

Robert A. Schnur, Michael Best & Friedrich, LLP

David C. Schoenberger, Bakke Norman, SC

Hon. Stuart A. Schwartz

Paul J. Sceptur

Robert A. Smith, Lakewood Ranch, FL

Megan E. Snyder

Daniel P. Steffen, Burnett County District Attorney's Office

Elizabeth Stevens, Appleton

Steven M. Streck, Axley Brynelson, LLP, Madison

Laura K. Van Fleet

Daphne Webb, Stafford Rosenbaum LLP

Rebecca R. Weise

William S. Wood

Shannon E. Wynn, Wynn at Law, LLC

Jodi S. Yin, St. Louis

Siv I. Yurichuk, Washington County (MN) Attorney's Office

Robert H. Zilske, Zilske Law Firm, S.C.

