

About the Authors

Craig W. Albee is the executive director at the Federal Defender Services of Wisconsin, Inc. From 2000 to 2011, he was a partner in the criminal defense firm Glynn, Fitzgerald & Albee. Before that he practiced with Shellow, Shellow & Glynn. Following his 1990 graduation from the University of Wisconsin Law School, he served as law clerk for Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice William A. Bablitch.

Jennifer L. Amundsen is the founder and principal at Amundsen Law Firm, LLC. While she primarily practices in the areas of business, intellectual property, and technology, she has also developed a niche practice in canine and equine law, advising owners and breeders of companion animals (primarily dogs) and horses on issues pertaining to their businesses and hobbies. She has represented dog clubs and equine groups, veterinarians, and boarding facilities, and she is a frequent speaker on legal topics pertaining to animals. Ms. Amundsen is a 2003 graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School (J.D.) and a 1994 graduate of Kalamazoo College (B.A.).

Richard L. Binder retired as a partner of Rohde Dales LLP in Sheboygan. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin in 1971 and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1973. For more than 20 years, he was the reporter for the Solo/Small Firm & General Practice News.

Daniel A. Blasiola, Ph.D., is a patent agent in the Intellectual Property Practice Group at the Madison office of DeWitt LLP. He earned his Ph.D. in biochemistry from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and is registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. His practice concentrates on patent preparation and prosecution, particularly in the life sciences sector.

Jesse B. Blocher is a shareholder at Habush Habush & Rottier S.C.® and focuses his practice on personal-injury claims. Mr. Blocher is a Board Certified Civil Trial Advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. His litigation, trial, and appellate experience spans a broad range of civil matters including cases arising out of automobile accidents, premises liability, environmental pollution, products liability, and insurance coverage. Mr. Blocher is a summa cum laude graduate of Marquette University Law School.

Erin E. Block is an attorney in DeWitt LLP's Intellectual Property Practice Group. She assists clients with all facets of intellectual property law, particularly patent prosecution, litigation, opinion letters, trademarks, and copyrights. In this capacity, Erin helps to prepare and prosecute domestic and international patent applications through to issuance. She specializes in the software and computer engineering fields and has helped clients receive patents in these areas, particularly for computer software, artificial intelligence (AI), and machine learning. She also focuses on assisting startups and individual entrepreneurs understand their intellectual property rights, protecting those rights, and avoiding the potential pitfalls startups and entrepreneurs face regarding intellectual property protection. Erin earned her B.S. in computer science from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and graduated magna cum laude from Marquette University Law School.

Kyle G. Borkenhagen is a partner with the firm Rohde Dales LLP in Sheboygan. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2008 and his J.D. from Indiana University in 2010. His practice primarily focuses on personal-injury cases, insurance disputes, and commercial litigation.

Drew Cochrane is vice president of operations and general counsel for Pellitteri Waste Systems. He is also an arbitrator with the American Arbitration Association, a mediator, and the founder and president of Cochrane ADR, LLC. He previously spent eight years as chief operating officer and general counsel for the New Glarus Brewing Company after beginning his career with 15 years in private practice, including 11 years with the Madison office of Stafford Rosenbaum LLP, where he was a senior partner and a member of the firm's board of directors. Mr. Cochrane received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Wisconsin in 1994 and 1999, respectively. Before entering private practice, Mr. Cochrane interned with the Wisconsin Supreme Court, worked as a law clerk in the Wisconsin Governor's Office, and served as a legislative aide in the Wisconsin State Assembly.

Kyle W. Engelke is a partner with the Madison law firm Stafford Rosenbaum LLP. He received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Engelke is a trial lawyer whose practice includes litigating commercial matters involving shareholder disputes and claims of tortious interference and misappropriation of trade secrets. Mr. Engelke is a member of the James E. Doyle American Inn of Court, appointee to the State Bar of Wisconsin Bench and Bar Committee, and past president of the Dane County Bar Association.

Victor Forberger is a solo practitioner in Madison. Previously, he was an administrative law judge in unemployment appeals in Massachusetts and then a hearing officer for the state labor relations commission in Massachusetts. Since 2009, he has been either a supervising attorney or the managing attorney for the Unemployment Compensation Appeals Clinic, Inc., through which law students at the University of Wisconsin Law School handle unemployment cases. He has a J.D. from Northeastern School of Law and is a member of the state bars in Wisconsin and Massachusetts and the National Lawyers Guild.

Joseph Franke is an associate in the Real Estate Practice at Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. He received his undergraduate degree from John Carroll University and his law degree, magna cum laude, from Marquette University Law School.

Mark H.T. Fuhrman is a shareholder in Fuhrman + Dodge, S.C., Middleton. He received his B.B.A. from the University of Wisconsin Business School in 1989 with a major in finance, investment, and banking, as well as a second major in psychology. In December 1993, he received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School. His practice concentrates in the areas of estate planning and business law, and he has been a featured speaker at numerous seminars addressing such topics as estate planning, choice of business entity, and business succession planning. Mr. Fuhrman is admitted to practice before Wisconsin's state and federal courts and is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Business Law and Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Sections; the Dane County Bar Association; and the Madison Estate Council.

Susan Grzeskowiak has devoted her practice since 2000 to representing consumers in Wisconsin Lemon Law, automobile-warranty, and misrepresentation cases. During that time, she has successfully represented consumers in resolving their claims prior to filing suit as well as in litigation through jury trials. Susan has prevailed in numerous cases before the Wisconsin Supreme Court, the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. She also serves as a supplemental court commissioner for the Milwaukee County Circuit Court.

Shawna Guinn is an assistant corporation counsel in the Dane County Corporation Counsel's Office. She handles CHIPS and termination of parental rights cases.

Mark R. Hamilton, Jr. is an associate at Meissner Tierney Fisher & Nichols S.C. He advises clients in various legal areas, including intellectual property, mergers and acquisitions, sports and esports, business, and securities. Attorney Hamilton received his bachelor's degree in sports management from Texas A&M University in 2018 and his law degree from Marquette University Law School in 2022, graduating with honors in both.

Michael S. Heffernan practiced for many years with Foley & Lardner LLP. Now retired, he limits his practice to divorce mediation. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School and served as a law clerk for the Wisconsin Supreme Court and as staff attorney for the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. Mr. Heffernan was a coauthor of the first edition of Appellate Practice and Procedure in Wisconsin in 1986 and has written all of the annual updates, and he is a coauthor of the Wisconsin Attorney's Desk Reference. Mr. Heffernan is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin. He is also a past chair of the Appellate Practice Section of the State Bar.

Margaret Wrenn Hickey practices in the areas of divorce, family law, and elder law, including trusts for disabled persons, Title 19, and guardianships. She is a shareholder with Becker, Hickey & Poster, S.C., Milwaukee, and received her B.A. from Marquette University (1982, summa cum laude), where she was Phi Beta Kappa, and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School (1986, cum laude). Margaret is a past president of the State Bar of Wisconsin. She served on the State Bar of Wisconsin's Board of Governors (2005–15; Chair, 2006–07, Treasurer, 2009–11), is on the Diversity and Inclusion Oversight Committee and the Leadership Development Committee, and has been chair of the Elder Law and Special Needs Section and Family Law Section boards. She is a past president of the Milwaukee Bar Association. Margaret lectures frequently on elder law and family law at local, state, and national bar meetings and to community groups. Margaret is a member of the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Bar Association, the Waukesha Bar Association, the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, and the Association for Women Lawyers and is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation and the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers.

Christopher J. Hussin is a partner in and chair of the Patent, Trademark and Copyright Team of the Madison law firm Boardman & Clark LLP. Chris focuses on all areas of patent, trademark, and copyright law and manages the trademark portfolios of a number of international companies. He assists clients in brand development and management, the selection and clearance of trademarks, the registration and enforcement of trademarks and copyrights in the United States and internationally, and intellectual property-related litigation. He is also experienced in drafting licenses, assignments, and other intellectual property-related contracts and business documents. Chris received his B.S. in civil engineering from the University of Wisconsin and his law degree from the University of Denver College of Law.

Evan Knupp is a partner in the law firm Roney & Knupp, LLC in Milwaukee. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. from Marquette Law School. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Mr. Knupp has practiced landlord-tenant law in the Milwaukee area for over 10 years, representing both landlords and tenants.

Benjamin T. Kurten chairs Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c.'s Immigration Law Group and is a shareholder in the firm's Labor and Employment and International Practices. Ben has over 24 years of immigration law experience and represents both large and small clients across the United States in a variety of industries, including manufacturing, health care, financial services, technology, entertainment, consumer goods, and agriculture. His work includes assisting clients with navigating the immigration regulations to be able to employ foreign-born individuals as well as to ensure their compliance with U.S. immigration regulations. He also regularly assists clients with family-based immigration matters as well as naturalization and citizenship matters. Ben has successfully argued removal, asylum, and employment cases before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, Board of Immigration Appeals, and the Administrative Appeals Office. In addition, Ben is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association, is a frequent speaker and panelist on the topic of immigration, has written numerous articles that have been published in professional journals as well as online, and has authored the Immigration Law chapter of the Wisconsin Attorney's Desk Reference for many years. Ben graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1997.

Gabriela A. Leija is an associate federal defender at Federal Defender Services of Wisconsin, Inc. From 2005 to 2012, she worked for the Wisconsin State Public Defender in various administrative and client services roles for the Milwaukee Trial and Appellate offices. Following her graduation from Marquette University Law School in the fall of 2014, she returned to the Wisconsin State Public Defender's office as a trial attorney before joining Federal Defender Services in 2016.

Alexander C. Lemke is an associate in the Milwaukee office of Meissner, Tierney, Fisher & Nichols, S.C. He advises clients on a wide range of intellectual property (IP) and commercial litigation matters. His practice also involves a focus on IP litigation. Mr. Lemke received his bachelor's degree in chemistry from the University of Dallas in 2014 and his law degree from the University of Tulsa in 2018, graduating with highest honors. Prior to joining Meissner, Tierney, Fisher & Nichols, he worked as an IP associate at a national law firm. Before that, he served as a law clerk on the Wisconsin Supreme Court.

Eric W. Lengell is an attorney with Zilske Law Firm S.C. He assists employers, insurance carriers, and third-party administrators with all phases of worker's compensation, from initial claim handling through formal hearings and appeals. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Marquette University Law School, where he was a member of the Marquette Law Review.

Kate Lloyd is an assistant corporation counsel for Dane County. She handles CHIPS, termination of parental rights, and other Wis. Stat. chapter 48 matters.

Jack Longert is in private practice with a primary concentration in advocating for disabled and low-income individuals seeking governmental benefits. He worked as a consultant with the TMG IRIS program in southwestern and south-central Wisconsin until November 2021, and he was executive director of the Wisconsin Pooled and Community Trust organization (WisPACT, Inc.) from May 2007 through November 2010. Mr. Longert has a B.A. and B.S. from the State University of New York at Buffalo and a J.D. from the University of Illinois College of Law (1978). He practiced for more than 20 years in various Legal Aid and Legal Services programs in Wisconsin and North Dakota and also served as an assistant clinical professor at the University of Wisconsin Law School. His practice included the areas of guardianship and protective placement while serving as a staff guardian ad litem and civil commitment defense counsel for the Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee and working with law students to represent patients at the Mendota Mental Health Institute. Mr. Longert also managed the operations of the Men's Drop-In Shelter and related facilities in Madison from 2002 to 2007.

Steven W. Martin is a retired shareholder in the law firm Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. in Waukesha. He received his B.A. from the University of Illinois and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Mr. Martin is a coauthor of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Wisconsin Construction Lien Law Handbook and Wisconsin Attorney's Desk Reference.

Amanda R. Rabe Mayer is the deputy director at Judicare Legal Aid in Wausau, Wisconsin. Her practice includes a variety of areas, including family law, crime victim rights, and public benefits. Ms. Mayer works closely with community agencies in the Judicare service area to provide services to victims and survivors of domestic abuse and sexual assault, as well as supervising attorneys who engage in similar work. She is a member of the Public Interest Law Section Board and the Family Law Section Board. Before joining Judicare, she worked at a nonprofit in Milwaukee with a focus on family law for low-income and indigent individuals. She received her undergraduate degree in political theory and constitutional democracy from Michigan State University in 2009 and her law degree from Marquette University Law School in 2012.

Avery J. Mayne is an elder and special needs law attorney and partner at Walny Legal Group LLC, Milwaukee. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Missouri and her law degree from Marquette University Law School. Ms. Mayne focuses her practice on issues of asset protection, public benefits qualification and appeals, guardianships and protective placements, and financial exploitation of elderly persons and persons with disabilities. She has practiced in the area of guardianships throughout her career, serving as petitioner, advocate counsel, guardian ad litem, and guardian of the estate.

Joseph T. Miotke is a registered patent attorney, patent litigator, and co-chair of the IP Litigation Group at DeWitt LLP. He practices in the intellectual property (IP) area with experience in patent, trademark, copyright, and trade secret matters. He is a frequent author and speaker to international audiences regarding IP licensing, IP monetization, patent litigation, ethics, and other IP-related topics. He earned his B.S. in civil engineering from Marquette University and graduated magna cum laude from Marquette University Law School.

John R. Misy is an assistant district attorney at the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office. He received his B.A. in Economics from Miami University (with honors) in 2020 and his J.D. from Vanderbilt University School of Law in 2023. John scored higher in Wills Trusts and Estates from the same professor as his father. A trial-loving attorney, John looks forward to future opportunities and a potential return to Wisconsin.

Robert J. Misy, Jr. is a shareholder at Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. in Milwaukee. He received his M.B.A. from Vanderbilt University's Owen Graduate School of Management, his J.D. from Vanderbilt University School of Law, and his LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center. He was previously with the I.R.S. Chief Counsel and is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the California Bar Association, and the District of Columbia Bar Association. A frequent writer and speaker on taxation and ethics, Mr. Misy has presented at continuing education programs in many states and countries.

Brittany S. Ogden is a partner at the Madison office of Quarles & Brady, LLP, and the chair of the Wisconsin offices' Bankruptcy, Restructuring & Creditor's Rights Practice Group. With her commercial litigation and bankruptcy practice in state and federal courts, she focuses on creditor's rights work, regularly representing financial institutions, equipment finance companies, secured and unsecured creditors, loan servicers, trustees, and creditor committees. She is commonly involved with Chapter 7, 11, 12, and 13 bankruptcy proceedings and receiverships, including cases under Wis. Stat. ch. 128. She routinely represents clients in the agricultural industry. Ms. Ogden obtained her undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and graduated from the Syracuse University College of Law. She is admitted to practice in the state of New York, the state of Wisconsin, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York, and the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin. She is a member of the American Bar Association, the American Bankruptcy Institute, Turnaround Management Association, the International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation, and the James E. Doyle American Inn of Court. She is an active member of the Equipment Leasing and Finance Association, serving as a co-chair for the Amicus Brief Committee and a member of the Service Provider's Committee.

Pamela M. Ploor is a partner in the Milwaukee office of the law firm Stafford Rosenbaum LLP. Ms. Ploor has practiced law with a concentration in employment and labor law throughout her career. Ms. Ploor has advised more than 1,000 private- and public-sector employers on federal and Wisconsin Family and Medical Leave Act laws. Besides her current job, Ms. Ploor has practiced law in house at a public company and at another law firm in Milwaukee. She received her undergraduate and law degrees from the University of California at Los Angeles and Harvard University, respectively. Ms. Ploor is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin.

Eve Dennison Pollock is a 1999 graduate of the University of the Wisconsin Law School and holds a B.A. from Luther College in Decorah, Iowa. She has been in private practice since 1999. Since 2005, Ms. Dennison Pollock has served on the Dane County contract for guardians ad litem taking cases in minor and adult guardianships, juvenile court matters (CHIPS/JIPS/TPRs), and paternity actions. She currently serves as the GAL contract liaison, managing relations between the contract GALs and the judges and court system in Dane County. She also maintains a private practice focusing on guardian ad litem work in family and probate court matters. Ms. Dennison Pollock served on the board of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Children & the Law Section from 2012 until 2015 and is currently a member of the Family Law and Children & the Law Sections. She has presented on GAL work in Wisconsin at many conferences, State Bar of Wisconsin seminars, and various trainings.

Heather B. Poster (B.A. with distinction, University of Wisconsin, 1999; J.D. with honors, Marquette Law School, 2002) is a shareholder with the law firm Becker, Hickey & Poster, S.C., Milwaukee. Her practice focuses on the representation of elderly persons and individuals with special needs in matters such as family law, estate planning, public benefits, and advanced directives and guardianship. Heather is a board member (past-chair, program co-chair) of the Wisconsin Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys. She is an advisor to and a past chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Elder Law and Special Needs Section (ELSNS) board. She also serves as the ELSNS liaison to the board for WisPACT, Inc., a nonprofit organization that oversees pooled and community trusts for persons with disabilities. For more than 10 years, Ms. Poster has been a coauthor of the Medicaid divestment chapter of the Wisconsin Attorney's Desk Reference and the Medicaid chapter of Advising Older Clients and Their Families, both published by the State Bar of Wisconsin.

Roy L. Prange, Jr. is a retired partner who practiced in the Madison office of Quarles & Brady, LLP. He received his B.A. from the University of Iowa, his M.A. from The Ohio State University, and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Prange has lectured at the University of Wisconsin Law School and State Bar of Wisconsin seminars and has also given presentations to various credit groups. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy, and a former director and chair of the Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Creditors' Rights Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin.

Amanda Ramaker is an assistant corporation counsel in the Dane County Corporation Counsel's Office. She handles CHIPS, termination of parental rights, and Wis. Stat. chapter 48 guardianship cases.

Eliza M. Reyes is an attorney with Richman & Richman. Since 2005, her practice has focused on financial matters, primarily representation of debtors, creditors, trustees, landlords, tenants, investors, and most other parties in interest with issues before the bankruptcy, federal, and state courts, including individual and commercial bankruptcy filings under Chapters 7, 13, 12, and 11; objections to discharge; fraudulent transfer issues; asset valuation issues; adversary proceedings; defense of foreclosure actions; debt collection; contract disputes; real estate matters; and individual, agricultural and commercial reorganizations. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Creditors' Rights Section and the Solo/Small Firm and General Practice Section, for which she serves as vice-chair of the board. Eliza also has been a presenter at conferences on various topics related to financial matters and bankruptcy and is an author for two State Bar of Wisconsin publications: the Creditor/Debtor chapter of the Wisconsin Attorney's Desk Reference and the Creditors' Rights & Remedies chapter of Marital Property Law & Practice in Wisconsin. Eliza is a 1991 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee with a degree in mass communication/journalism, and she received her J.D. from the University of Illinois Chicago School of Law (formerly known as The John Marshall Law School) in 1997.

Theresa L. Roetter is a partner at DeWitt LLP in Madison. She has practiced law in Madison since 1999 and began her legal career in Green and Lafayette Counties. She received her B.A. from St. Norbert College, with honors, in 1988 and her J.D. from Marquette University in 1993. Theresa focuses her practice on adoption, surrogacy, guardianship, and other family law matters related to children. She has served as counsel in hundreds of adoptions and is a fellow, current board member, and vice president of the Academy of Adoption and Assisted Reproduction Attorneys. Theresa has received the Wisconsin Governor's "Champion of Adoption" award and was named an "Angel in Adoption" by the Congressional Coalition on Adoption Institute in Washington, D.C. Theresa is an active member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, serving the Children & the Law Section on its legislative committee and as a former board member and past section chair.

Patrick M. Roney is a partner at the Milwaukee firm Roney & Knupp, LLC. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2000 and his J.D. from Marquette University in 2004. He worked as an associate attorney for an insurance defense litigation firm through 2008. In 2009, he started his own real estate and general litigation firm. He has been practicing landlord-tenant law since 2009.

Kyle R. Schaffer is a partner at Willow River Law, LLC, and a member of the trial and litigation team. He received his J.D. from the University of St. Thomas School of Law in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and was admitted to practice law in Wisconsin in 2016. Mr. Schaffer practices primarily in family law, construction law, and civil litigation. His family law practice involves divorce and postdivorce matters, custody disputes, and paternity actions. He is an active member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the St. Croix Valley Bar Association, and the American Legion Butler-Harmon Post 80. Mr. Schaffer, a veteran of the war in Afghanistan, also enjoys serving his community and his country as an infantry company commander in the Wisconsin Army National Guard.

Timothy G. Schally is a partner with and chair of the Tax Practice Group of Michael Best & Friedrich LLP. He received his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1985. He is a former chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Taxation Law Section and has lectured and written on a wide variety of tax subjects, including income, property, sales, and use taxes. His publications include Tax Consequences of Contingent Payment Transactions and The Complete Guide to Wisconsin Sales and Use Taxes. He has also served as an adjunct faculty member in tax law at the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he taught courses in the federal income taxation of corporations.

Megan L. Sprecher is a graduate of Indiana University-Bloomington and the University of St. Thomas School of Law. She is a Supervising Attorney with Legal Action of Wisconsin, where she works on barriers to employment issues. Before joining Legal Action, Ms. Sprecher was the Immigration and Poverty Law Attorney at End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Coalition Against Domestic Violence, and a Senior Attorney for the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland. She serves on the Committee to Improve Interpreting and Translation in the Wisconsin Courts.

Gary S. Stanislowski is the president of Zilske Law Firm S.C. in Brookfield, Wisconsin. He received his B.A., in 1994, and his J.D., in 1997, from Marquette University. His practice concentrates on defending worker's compensation claims and advising clients on related issues. He is a member of the Defense Research Institute.

Kelly J. Stohr is an attorney with the law firm Fuhrman + Dodge, S.C., in Middleton. Her practice is focused in the areas of probate, trust administration, and estate planning, in addition to real estate and business law. She received her B.A. (summa cum laude) from the University of California-Santa Barbara, majoring in biological anthropology. She graduated with honors from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2004, where she was a member of the Wisconsin Law Review. Kelly is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Taxation, Business Law, and Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Sections and the Dane County Bar Association.

Clementine Uwabera is a partner with the Madison law firm Stafford Rosenbaum LLP. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and her law degree from Florida State University. Ms. Uwabera concentrates her practice in the areas of litigation and municipal law. Ms. Uwabera serves as the president-elect of the Dane County Bar Association.

Thomas S. Vercauteren is a partner with Boardman & Clark LLP, Madison. He received his B.A. in sociology from the University of Minnesota in 2006 and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2009. Prior to entering private practice, he worked as a trust officer. His practice concentrates in the areas of estate planning, probate, and trust administration. He is a member of the Dane County Bar Association, Madison Estate Council, and the State Bar of Wisconsin.

David P. Weller is a partner with Boardman & Clark LLP, Madison. He received his B.S.B. in accounting from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota in 1993 and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1997. He is also a certified public accountant. His practice concentrates in the areas of estate planning and probate administration, tax planning, and business law. He is a member of the Dane County Bar Association, the State Bar of Wisconsin, and the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Heidi Acker Yelk is the deputy law librarian and director of reference services at the Wisconsin State Law Library. Before joining the Wisconsin State Law Library, she worked as a law firm librarian. She received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin and her master's degree in library and information science from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. She has served as a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Staff-Client Education Committee. She writes and teaches on the topics of legal technology and computer-assisted legal research.

Peter M. Young is a shareholder at Habush Habush & Rottier S.C.®, where he represents injured people and their loved ones. He has tried cases throughout Wisconsin and has represented people throughout the United States. He practices in the areas of personal injury, product liability, and nursing home negligence. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with degrees in legal studies and political science and earned a J.D. from Marquette University Law School.

The following authors have contributed to this book in the past:

Betsy J. Abramson
Thomas W. Anderson
Kathleen R. Avoles
Gary L. Bakke
Carol Bannon
Virginia M. Bartelt
Thomas J. Basting, Sr.
Barbara J. Becker
Maren Beermann
Cyrus Behroozi
Sara Berman Jensen
Bruce T. Block
Eugenia G. Carter
Stacia Conneely
Anne Daugherty-Leiter
Kevin J. Demet
Margadette Demet
Thomas E. Dixon, Jr.
Kevin R. Du
William Ebbott
Jerome M. Elliott
Jon Evenson
Navid Fanaeian
Kelly S. Fisher
Kerry L. Gabrielson
Stephen M. Glynn
Charles P. Graupner
Ann Green
Jennifer L. Gregor
Dyann Hafner
Robert Horowitz
John L. Horwich
Mark Hoskins
Susan Howe Rauti
Gregory G. Johnson
Mary Kasperek
Jessica King
Karl L. Kliminski
Grace Knutson
Deanne M. Koll
Katharine F. Kucharski
Saejung Lee
Autumn L. Lindquist
Mary Ann McCarthy
James W. McNeilly, Jr.

Tess Meuer
Robert J. Misesy
John C. Mitby
Sally Mohr Lunde
Teresa A. Mueller
John D. Neal
Barbara A. Neider
Lori Nitzel
Angela R. Olson
Chinonso I. Osuji
Boris V. Ouchakof
Nancy Paul
Hon. James D. Peterson
James L. Pflasterer
Molly Plunkett
Reince R. Priebus
Joseph E. Puchner
Robert A. Ramsdell
Gary Rehfeldt
Katherine M. Reynolds
Shelley J. Safer
Charles S. Sara
Jennifer M. Schank
Madeline Schlederer
Robert A. Schnur
David C. Schoenberger
Tracey L. Schwalbe
Hon. Stuart A. Schwartz
Paul J. Sceptur
Robert A. Smith
Megan E. Snyder
Daniel P. Steffen
Elizabeth Stevens
Steven M. Streck
John C. Talis
Lawrence Alan Towers
Laura K. Van Fleet
Meg Vergeront
Daphne Webb
Rebecca R. Weise
William S. Wood
Shannon E. Wynn
Jodi S. Yin
Siv I. Yurichuk
Robert H. Zilske