

About the Authors – Volume I

Nicholas E. Fairweather is a shareholder with Hawks Quindel, S.C. He received his undergraduate degree from Lawrence University and his law degree from Case Western Reserve University. Mr. Fairweather is a past chair of the Solo/Small Firm & General Practice Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin. He has served on the boards of the Tenant Resource Center and Community Justice, Inc., both Madison nonprofit organizations. He focuses his practice on employee-side employment counseling and litigation and civil litigation, including consumer protection matters. He practices out of the Madison office of Hawks Quindel, S.C.

Colin B. Good is senior counsel with Hawks Quindel, S.C. He received his undergraduate degree with honors from Lawrence University and his law degree from the University of Montana School of Law. Mr. Good is a board member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Labor & Employment Law Section. He focuses his practice in the areas of employment and labor law, with particular experience in litigating various employment issues in local, state, and federal courts as well as administrative agencies. He practices out of the Madison office of Hawks Quindel, S.C.

April A. Hartman is a staff attorney for Legal Action of Wisconsin's Community Law Project in the Milwaukee office. Ms. Hartman primarily represents tenants in eviction defense and affirmative-failure-to-make-repair cases and assists community organizations trying to have a positive effect in their neighborhoods.

Mark T. Johnson is a partner with Johnson Teigen, LLC, Fitchburg, where he practices in the areas of estate planning, estate and trust administration, elder law, special needs planning, and real estate. Mr. Johnson is a Certified Elder Law Attorney (CELA), as designated by the National Elder Law Foundation and recognized by the American Bar Association for specialty certification. He graduated with honors from the University of Wisconsin Law School, and he has a bachelor of music degree from St. Olaf College and a master of arts degree from the University of Notre Dame. He is a member of the Special Needs Alliance, the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA), the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Wisconsin (including the Elder Law and Special Needs Section and the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section), the Dane County Bar Association, and the Madison Estate Council. He is 2019–20 president of the Wisconsin Chapter of NAELA. Mr. Johnson has published articles in the Wisconsin Law Review, Wisconsin Lawyer, and the Elder Law and Special Needs Journal of Wisconsin and has contributed to various publications of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Mr. Johnson serves on the Dane County Financial Abuse Specialist Team and the Dane County Dementia Friendly Financial Group.

Angel R. Kwaterski is a staff attorney with Legal Action of Wisconsin's Elder Rights Project in the Racine office. Ms. Kwaterski primarily represents Racine, Kenosha, and Walworth County residents age 60 or older who are victims of crimes relating to housing, family, and consumer law matters. Ms. Kwaterski received her Bachelor of Arts from Marquette University in 2013 and her Juris Doctor from The John Marshall Law School (now known as UIC John Marshall Law School) in 2016.

Jessica A. Liebau is a partner with Wessels & Liebau, LLC, Mequon. Ms. Liebau focuses her practice primarily in the areas of elder law, special needs planning, guardianship, guardian ad litem, estate planning, and estate administration. She is also a trained elder mediator. She received her B.A. (summa cum laude) in political science from St. Norbert College and her J.D. (cum laude) from Marquette University Law School. Ms. Liebau is on the board of the Elder Law and Special Needs Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the editor of the Elder Law and Special Needs Journal of Wisconsin and is a member of the national and Wisconsin chapters of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA and WI-NAELA), the Ozaukee Bar Association, the Milwaukee Bar Association, the Association of Women Lawyers, and the Trust Committee for Life Navigators, Inc. (formerly ARC of Greater Milwaukee). She is an active member of the Ozaukee County Interdisciplinary Team on Elder Abuse (“I-Team”). Ms. Liebau writes and presents frequently on elder-law-related topics to other professionals as well as the public.

Greg W. Renz is a partner in the Milwaukee office of Foley & Lardner LLP. He received his B.A. (summa cum laude) from Marquette University and his J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Chicago Law School. Before shifting to part-time status, he was a frequent lecturer on employee benefits issues, including qualified and nonqualified deferred compensation plans and employee stock ownership plans. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and is a past president of the Greater Milwaukee Employee Benefits Council.

Theresa L. Roetter is a partner with the law firm of DeWitt LLP, Madison. She practices in the areas of adoption, assisted reproduction, child protection, and family law. She has extensive experience in litigation involving termination of parental rights and child custody and juvenile court proceedings involving children in need of protection or services. She also has been involved in appeals in the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, the Wisconsin Supreme Court, and the U.S. Supreme Court. She received her B.A. (cum laude) from St. Norbert College in 1988 and her J.D. from Marquette University in 1993. Ms. Roetter is a Fellow of the Academy of Adoption and Assisted Reproduction Attorneys, past chair of the Children & the Law Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin, and a member of the National Association of Counsel for Children.

Kate Schilling is the Legal Services Manager at Greater Wisconsin Agency on Aging Resources, Inc., where she oversees the Senior Medicare Patrol, the Wisconsin Guardianship Support Center, and the Elder Benefit Specialist

Supervising Attorney program. She works predominantly in the areas of elder law, public benefits, and consumer law. Previously, she was in private practice in New Richmond, where she practiced in estate planning, Medicaid benefits, guardianship, and general civil litigation. Ms. Schilling is a board member of the State Bar of Wisconsin’s Elder Law and Special Needs Section and Public Interest Law Section and a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys. Before attending law school, she coordinated supports for adults with developmental disabilities, and she currently serves as a volunteer guardian for a woman with a disability living in Madison. She is a volunteer at high school mock-trial events, local free legal clinics, and Wills for Heroes. Ms. Schilling is also the proud parent of an eight-year-old son with special health-care needs.

Paul M. Schmidt is a partner in Boardman & Clark LLP, Madison. He graduated from Valparaiso University with majors in psychology and sociology, has a master’s degree in counseling from Drake University, and received a law degree from Kansas University. From 1976 until 1985, he worked as a claims representative, supervisor, and program analyst for the Social Security Administration. Mr. Schmidt lectured annually in the areas of trusts and estate planning at the University of Wisconsin Law School from 1998 through 2013 and continues to be a frequent lecturer on the topics of estate planning and elder law. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Florida Bar, the Dane County Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

Brittany D. Schoenick is a staff attorney with Legal Action of Wisconsin’s SeniorLAW project, representing Milwaukee County residents age 60 or older with housing, public benefits, and consumer law matters. With respect to housing matters, Ms. Schoenick primarily represents older adults in eviction defense and with housing discrimination claims. She received her B.S. from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School.

The following authors have contributed to this book in the past:

Betsy Abramson

Shirin H. Cabraal

Ralph Cagle

Patricia DeLessio

Matthew P. Dregne

Barbara S. Hughes

Madelyn D. Leopold

Donna McDowell

Frederick Perillo

Bruce A. Tammi

Heidi M. Wegleitner

