

About the Authors

Anthony S. Baish is a shareholder in the Milwaukee office of Godfrey & Kahn, S.C. He is the co-chair of the firm's litigation practice group, concentrating in complex commercial matters, with an emphasis on intellectual property litigation. He received his B.S. in 1992 from the University of Iowa and his J.D. in 1998 from the University of Michigan Law School, where he was a member of the University of Michigan Law Review. He joined Godfrey & Kahn, S.C. after clerking for the Honorable Suzanne B. Conlon in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. He has appeared before the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Seventh and Federal Circuits, before the Appellate Division of New York state, and in a variety of state and federal courts in Wisconsin and throughout the country. He is a member of the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Wisconsin, and the Milwaukee and Seventh Circuit Bar Associations and is a past president of the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association. He also serves on a committee with multiple federal judges and other practitioners to revise and rewrite the Seventh Circuit Pattern Jury Instructions, co-chairing subcommittees on copyright and trademark instructions.

James E. Bartzen is a partner in the Madison office of Boardman & Clark LLP. He practices in the areas of business and banking litigation. He received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1980 and his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1977. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Dane County Bar Association.

Isaac S. Brodkey is a senior associate in Stafford Rosenbaum LLP's Madison office, where his practice focuses primarily on dealership and franchise issues and complex commercial litigation. He received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2021, and he is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Business Law and Litigation Sections.

Olivia Brooks is an associate at Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. in the litigation group. She represents clients in a variety of legal matters, including complex commercial, contract, and intellectual property disputes. She is also an active member of Reinhart's pro bono program, having represented pro bono clients in various substantive areas and phases of litigation. She earned her law degree magna cum laude from the University of Wisconsin Law School and is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Bar Association, the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association, the Seventh Circuit Bar Association, and the American Inn of Courts (Fairchild Inn Chapter).

Larri J. Broomfield is a shareholder in the business organizations and health care departments at Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. He provides counsel on commercial contract law, practice structures, mergers and acquisitions, and related corporate and health law matters. He received his B.S. (summa cum laude) from the University of Albany and his J.D. from Harvard Law School. Mr. Broomfield is a frequent speaker and author. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Bar Associations.

Andrew J. Clarkowski is a partner in the Madison law firm of Axley Brynelson, LLP. He received his B.A. (cum laude) from Carleton College and his M.A. and J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin, where he was senior managing editor of the Wisconsin Law Review. Mr. Clarkowski formerly served as law clerk to Chief Justice Roland B. Day of the Wisconsin Supreme Court and is a past president of the Western District of Wisconsin Bar Association.

Olivia M. Dunn is a partner in the Madison office of Stafford Rosenbaum LLP. She is a member of the firm's business and real estate practice groups. Her practice focuses on commercial transactions in which she drafts and negotiates agreements such as purchase and sale agreements, commercial loan documents, and lease agreements. She received her B.A. from Indiana University-Bloomington and her J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School, where she was a note and comment editor of the Wisconsin Law Review.

James B. Egle is a partner with Stafford Rosenbaum LLP in Madison. Mr. Egle focuses his practice on corporate transactions, franchise and distribution law, utilities, taxation, and real estate. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1983 and, in 1992, his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he was a member of the Wisconsin Law Review. Mr. Egle is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Dane County and American Bar Associations.

Matthew S. Geimer is an associate teaching professor for the Austin E. Cofrin School of Business at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay. He received his B.A. (magna cum laude) from the University of Minnesota and his J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Mr. Geimer serves as the vice-chair for the Business Administration Department for the Cofrin School of Business and teaches business law courses, including Legal Environment of Business and Law and the Individual. Mr. Geimer previously practiced law at Geimer & Orcutt Law, S.C., Green Bay. His practice primarily focused on estate planning, elder law, probate, real estate, and guardianships.

Xavier O. Jenkins is an associate with Godfrey & Kahn, S.C. in Milwaukee. Mr. Jenkins is a litigation attorney, concentrating in commercial disputes, estate and fiduciary litigation, products liability defense, and data privacy and cybersecurity cases. He received his B.A. from Marquette University in 2018 and his J.D. from Marquette Law School in 2021. Mr. Jenkins is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Bar Association, and the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association.

Danielle M. Johnson is a lecturer for the Business Law class for the Wisconsin School of Business. Attorney Johnson has represented clients in private practice for over a decade in the areas of corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, and commercial real estate. She received her B.A. from Macalester College and her J.D. (cum laude) from the University of St. Thomas School of Law. She is admitted to practice in Wisconsin and Minnesota. In addition, she runs her own business.

Randall L. Nash is with Nash Law, LLC, in Milwaukee. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, graduating with honors and Phi Beta Kappa. He received his J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Mr. Nash's practice concentrates in the litigation of business and family disputes. He is a past member and chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Media-Law Relations Committee and Professionalism Committee. He has twice been elected to the State Bar's Board of Governors. Mr. Nash also served as an adjunct assistant professor at Marquette University Law School, teaching trial advocacy. Mr. Nash has been certified by the National Board of Trial Advocacy as a civil trial specialist.

David M. Pelletier is a partner in Axley Brynson, LLP, Madison. He received his B.A. (cum laude) from Michigan State University and his J.D. (cum laude) from Villanova University School of Law, where he served as an editor of the Villanova Law Review. Mr. Pelletier practices primarily in the areas of bankruptcy, insolvency law, creditor's rights, and receiverships and represents lenders in real estate and business finance. He teaches business law at the Wisconsin School of Business.

Jessica Hutson Polakowski is a shareholder at Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c., where she helps clients successfully navigate the world of complex litigation. Jess is active in both administrative and regulatory matters and has helped clients obtain (and retain) permits from agencies such as Wisconsin's Public Service Commission and Department of Natural Resources. She also advises and assists clients in protecting their intellectual property rights and pursuing issues regarding unfair competition, and she has litigated false advertising claims under the Lanham Act. She earned her law degree magna cum laude from the University of Minnesota Law School and is a member of the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Wisconsin, and the Dane County Bar Association.

Jeffrey D. Roeske is senior corporate counsel for Uline and was an attorney in the litigation practice at Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. and a member of the firm's commercial and competition law group.

Richard J. Sankovitz is a former circuit court judge in Milwaukee County. He now practices mediation and arbitration full time at Resolute Systems LLC in Milwaukee. During his 22-year career on the bench, which included two tours of duty in the civil division and one in the family division, he presided over many a contract-interpretation dispute. He is a graduate of Marquette University and Harvard Law School, and he clerked for the late, great (then) U.S. District Court Judge (later U.S. Court of Appeals Judge) Terence T. Evans. Before taking the bench, he was a shareholder with Whyte Hirschboeck Dudek S.C. His practice concentrated in commercial and antitrust litigation. He handled cases in state and federal court at both the trial and appellate levels. In addition to litigating a wide variety of contractual disputes on behalf of both plaintiffs and defendants, he regularly advised clients and other lawyers on contract negotiation and drafting. He is active in the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Bar Association.

Neil S. Schadle is an attorney in the Madison office of DeWitt LLP. Mr. Schadle focuses his practice on corporate transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, and other transactional matters, assisting clients with contract issues, due diligence, regulatory compliance, and general corporate matters. He received his B.S. from Iowa State University and his J.D. from the University of Iowa College of Law. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the American Bar Association.

Jane C. Schlicht is a partner with Hinshaw & Culbertson, LLP, practicing in the firm's intellectual property and business litigation practice groups. She received her B.A. (summa cum laude) in 1980 from Marquette University, where she graduated Phi Beta Kappa. She received her J.D. (summa cum laude) from Marquette University Law School in 1983, where she was a member of the Marquette Law Review. Ms. Schlicht is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin as well as the Milwaukee, American, Seventh Circuit, and Federal Circuit Bar Associations. She is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and the U.S. Supreme Court. She was on the advisory committee to study cost and delay in the Wisconsin federal court system. She is a Master in the Thomas E. Fairchild Inns of Court, is past chair of the Professionalism Committee for the Milwaukee Bar Association, and co-chaired the committee to rewrite the local rules for Milwaukee's Business Court. From 2000 to 2006, Ms. Schlicht was a member and chair of the Special Preliminary Review Panel of the Wisconsin Lawyer Regulation System. Ms. Schlicht coauthored the article Offers of Settlement in Wisconsin Diversity Actions—Opening the Doors to Plaintiffs, Wis. Law., Oct. 1996. She also coauthored the articles Upholding the Sanctity of the Attorney Client Privilege, Wis. Law., Dec. 2004; and Managing Intellectual Property Issues in Cyberspace, which appeared in Leading Lawyers on Developing an Effective Internet IP Strategy (2012 Thomas Reuters/Aspatore).

Scott J. Thomsen is a senior in-house counsel in Milwaukee for the Forest County Potawatomi Community, representing the tribe and its diverse portfolio of business interests. His practice focuses on commercial contracting and transactions, construction law, health law, insurance law, and claims and litigation management. Mr. Thomsen received his undergraduate degree with honors from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in 2000. He received a J.D. (cum laude) from Drake University Law School in 2003. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin.

Matthew M. Wuest is a shareholder with Godfrey & Kahn, S.C. in Milwaukee. Mr. Wuest focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation, with a particular emphasis on shareholder disputes and corporate governance litigation. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2007 and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2010. Mr. Wuest is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Bar Association and serves on the Executive Committee of the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association.

Authors of Previous Editions

Michael B. Apfeld	Monica A. Mark
Allen A. Arntsen	John D. Myer
Kenneth B. Axe	Alexander T. Pendleton
Lewis W. Beilin	H. Dale Peterson
David B. Billing	Bradley W. Raaths
Richard L. Bolton	Craig R. Roush
Eugenia G. Carter	Andrew J. Schlidt III
Gretchen E. Cleveland	Michael D. Stotler
Christopher D. Daniels	Joshua D. Taggatz
Bryan C. Esch	Jacqueline B. Wilcox
Troy Hilliard	Jonathan P. Witt
Jesse S. Ishikawa	Michael H. Wussow
Michael J. Klinker	Kim Marie Wynn
Steven W. Laabs	