

About the Supplement Authors

Robert S. Driscoll is a shareholder in the Labor and Employment Department of Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. Mr. Driscoll's practice centers on helping employers navigate laws governing employment discrimination, wages and hours, restrictive covenants, and labor relations. He litigates on behalf of employers in these areas as well. Mr. Driscoll received his B.A. (summa cum laude) from Hillsdale College, his M.A. from the University of Dallas, and his J.D. (magna cum laude) from the University of Notre Dame Law School. His article, "The Law of Premises Liability in America: Its Past, Present, and Some Considerations for Its Future," was published in the Notre Dame Law Review. Following law school, Mr. Driscoll was a law clerk for the Honorable Diane S. Sykes of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

Andrea J. Farrell has litigated civil rights and employment discrimination cases exclusively with The Jeff Scott Olson Law Firm since graduating from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2007. Ms. Farrell expresses special appreciation to Jeff Scott Olson for teaching her what it takes to be a fierce and unwavering advocate for the underdog, to Christine Bremer Muggli for showing her the importance of making broader contributions to the legal community, and to Joyce and Geoff Farrell for instilling in her the moral fortitude necessary to accomplish both.

Michael J. Gentry is a shareholder in the Labor and Employment Department of Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. He counsels employers on all aspects of employment law and represents clients in litigation on related issues. Mr. Gentry is also a member of Reinhart's Data Privacy and Cybersecurity Group and Artificial Intelligence Group, allowing him to bring even more value to his clients in these rapidly evolving fields. He writes regularly about these subjects and has authored, among other pieces, "Table of Experts: Succeeding with AI" (Milwaukee Business Journal) and "AI Wild West: Employers Must Be Policy-Proactive in the Generative Era" (Milwaukee Business Journal). Mr. Gentry received his B.S. from Anderson University and his J.D. (cum laude) from Marquette University Law School.
