

About the Authors

Gregg M. Herman, of Loeb & Herman, S.C., Milwaukee, Wisconsin, was admitted to the Wisconsin bar in 1977 after receiving his law degree at the University of Wisconsin Law School. He served as Assistant District Attorney for Milwaukee County from 1977 to 1984. He is certified by the National Board of Trial Advocacy as a specialist in family law trial advocacy. Mr. Herman is a past chair of the Family Law Section of the American Bar Association. Mr. Herman has previously served as chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Family Law Section, and President of the Milwaukee Bar Association and of the Wisconsin Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. He served three terms as a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors. He is the founder and was first chair of the Collaborative Family Law Council of Wisconsin and the Divorce Cooperation Institute. Mr. Herman has served as Associate Editor and Editor-in-Chief of the Wisconsin Journal of Family Law and is the editor of The Joy of Settlement and 101+ Practical Solutions for the Family Lawyer, both published by the ABA Family Law Section. Mr. Herman is a certified family law mediator.

Aviva Meridian Kaiser is Ethics Counsel at the State Bar of Wisconsin. Before joining the State Bar in 2013, she taught at the University of Wisconsin Law School for 25 years. She taught Professional Responsibilities, Ethical and Professional Considerations in Writing, Problem Solving, and Risk Management and, from 1992 until 2002, was the director of the Legal Research and Writing Program. Ms. Kaiser received her B.A. in Chinese from the University of Pittsburgh and her J.D. from the State University of New York at Buffalo Law School. She clerked for the Honorable Louis B. Garippo in People v. John Wayne Gacy and clerked for the Honorable Maurice Perlin in the Illinois Appellate Court. She practiced law in Chicago before beginning her full-time teaching career at IIT Chicago/Kent College of Law. Ms. Kaiser is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, a Wisconsin Bar Foundation Fellow, an American Bar Foundation Fellow, and a frequent speaker on matters of professional ethics.

Rebecca W. Oettinger is a mediator and attorney at Driftless Mediation & Family Law LLC in Baraboo. Ms. Oettinger received her law degree from the University of Wisconsin (magna cum laude, Order of the Coif), and she practiced family law in Madison for seven years before opening her own firm. She was named a Fellow of the Wisconsin Law Foundation in 2014. She is a past chair and current member of the Collaborative Family Law Council of Wisconsin, and she received that organization's 2017 Kathleen M. Baird Dolphin Award for service to the collaborative divorce community.
