

About the Authors

---

Thomas A. Bailey is retired, with homes in Wisconsin and Florida. Mr. Bailey received his B.S. and J.D. degrees from Marquette University and has been certified by the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers as an arbitrator for family law cases. He has served as president of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers in Wisconsin, chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin Family Law Section, and president of the Milwaukee Bar Association. He has been a fellow in the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers since 1981. Attorney Bailey has been a frequent lecturer to lawyers and judges on family law subjects at State Bar and American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers seminars.

Laura Lau is the judge for Waukesha County Circuit Court Branch 12. Before her election as a circuit court judge, she was a court commissioner for Waukesha County from 2001–18. She received her B.S. in finance from The Pennsylvania State University in 1985 and her J.D. from Marquette University Law School in 1988. She is a frequent lecturer at State Bar seminars, as well as civic and other community activities. She is the recipient of the Bar Association Community Service Award and has served on nonprofit boards for more than 25 years. She continues this involvement, with an emphasis on addressing mental health challenges in the community, and serves on the executive board for NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness). Ms. Lau is a member of the Waukesha County Bar Association and State Bar of Wisconsin.

Author of Previous Edition

Allan R. Koritzinsky

