

Index to Casenotes

The bolded subject terms that appear in the main text comprise the subject entries of this index. This index does not purport to include all existing cases under any particular subject entry. This index only covers cases decided since the Divorce Reform Act of 1977, which took effect on February 1, 1978. Additional legal research is always needed.

Chapter 767 of the Wisconsin Statutes was recodified by 2005 Wis. Act 443, effective January 1, 2007, and many sections in the chapter were renumbered as of that date. Older casenotes in this book (in general, notes that discuss cases filed before January 1, 2007) reflect the section numbering in effect before January 1, 2007. For the treatment of the old section numbers by 2005 Wis. Act 443 and for a list of the counterpart sections in the recodified statutes, see the Statute Number Correspondence Table in this volume.
