

About the Authors

Allen A. Arntsen retired as a partner and trial attorney in the Madison office of Foley & Lardner LLP, practicing in the areas of commercial, intellectual property, and real estate litigation. Mr. Arntsen is a former vice chair of the Madison Planning Commission and has chaired and been a member of several city of Madison task forces and commissions concerned with land use issues. He has taught and written on eminent domain and land use issues and has tried numerous real estate and eminent domain cases.

Melinda A. Bialzik is a shareholder with the Milwaukee law firm of Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C., focusing on business and commercial litigation and estate planning. She received her B.A. from Lawrence University in 1996 and her J.D. from Harvard in 1999. She is a member of The Thomas E. Fairchild Chapter of the American Inns of Court and of the National Association of Railroad Trial Counsel and formerly served on the board of the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association.

Keith A. Bruett is a partner and general counsel in the Milwaukee office of Quarles & Brady LLP. He focuses on professional liability matters, insurance-coverage disputes, and trust and estate disputes. Mr. Bruett graduated from the University of Minnesota, and he earned his law degree (summa cum laude) from Marquette University.

Robert C. Burrell was a shareholder with the Milwaukee law firm of Borgelt, Powell, Peterson & Frauen S.C. until his retirement on December 31, 2021. He received his B.A. from the University of Northern Iowa in 1968 and his J.D. from the University of Iowa in 1971. He has served as a member of the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel and of Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin.

Jessica M. Butler is a solo practitioner at Butler Law Office, LLC, in Milwaukee. She received a B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2006 and a J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2009. Ms. Butler concentrates primarily on personal-injury litigation. She also is on the board of directors for the Wisconsin Association for Justice; is the 26th past-president and a current member of the Wisconsin Association of African-American Lawyers; and is a member of the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association, the Milwaukee Bar Association's Courts Committee, and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., a prestigious historically Black Greek letter community service organization. She is passionate about helping empower people in her community and seeks to help do that in any way she can.

James R. Clark is a commercial litigation partner of Foley & Lardner LLP, Milwaukee. He received his B.A. from Ripon College and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he was the editor in chief of the Wisconsin Law Review. He is a member of the American College of Trial Lawyers and the American Board of Trial Advocates and serves as general counsel of the Foley firm.

Andrew J. Clarkowski is a partner in the Madison law firm of Axley Brynelson, LLP. He received his B.A. (cum laude) from Carleton College and his M.A. and J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin, where he was senior managing editor of the Wisconsin Law Review. Mr. Clarkowski formerly served as law clerk to Chief Justice Roland B. Day of the Wisconsin Supreme Court and is a past president of the Western District of Wisconsin Bar Association.

Sherry D. Coley is a partner and the manager of the Green Bay and Appleton offices of Amundsen Davis LLC. She received her B.A. from Drake University and her J.D. from Marquette University. Ms. Coley focuses her practice primarily on intellectual property litigation, including patent, trademark, copyright, unfair competition, and trade secret disputes, as well as in complex business litigation, with an emphasis on contract disputes, business torts, financial services litigation, real estate foreclosures and workouts, and shareholder and business-owner disputes.

Matthew J. Cornetta is an attorney at Ruder Ware, L.L.S.C., in Eau Claire. He focuses his practice on civil litigation, concentrating in general business litigation, construction litigation, and litigation arising out of contract and real estate disputes. He is also licensed to practice in Minnesota.

Kyle W. Engelke is a partner with the Madison law firm of Stafford Rosenbaum LLP. He received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Engelke is a trial lawyer whose practice includes litigating commercial matters involving shareholder disputes and claims of tortious interference and misappropriation of trade secrets. Mr. Engelke is a member of The James E. Doyle American Inns of Court, appointee to the State Bar of Wisconsin Bench and Bar Committee, and former president of the Dane County Bar Association.

Brandon J. Evans is a shareholder with the law firm of Kendricks Bordeau, P.C., Marquette, Michigan. He received his undergraduate degree (summa cum laude) from Northern Michigan University and his J.D. from the George Mason University School of Law, where he was a founding member and an articles editor of the Journal of Law, Economics & Policy. Mr. Evans has a general practice with emphasis in real estate, mining, title examination, and civil litigation. He is a current member of the Michigan Land Title Standards Committee, is a past chair of the Litigation Section of the State Bar of Michigan and of the editorial board of Wisconsin Lawyer, and has served on the State Bar of Wisconsin's Board of Governors, Executive Committee, and Young Lawyers Division board (president 2016–17). Mr. Evans also was president of the Brown County Young Lawyers Association (2010–11) when he lived in Green Bay. Mr. Evans is licensed to practice in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Matthew R. Falk is a trial attorney and the founding member of Falk Legal Group. Mr. Falk's practice areas include subrogation, personal injury, catastrophic loss, and business and commercial litigation with an emphasis on contracts, collections, covenants not to compete, and business torts (including fraud, misrepresentation, construction law, mechanics' and construction liens, bond claims, and trade secrets). Clients include individuals, families, business owners, developers, engineering firms, contractors, subcontractors, material suppliers, and large regional insurers and third-party administrators. He is admitted to practice in Wisconsin and Illinois. Mr. Falk graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay in 1990, attended graduate school at Catholic University in Quito, Ecuador, in 1990–91, and received his law degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1994. He is a certified recovery professional by the National Association of Subrogation Professionals, a past president and former member of the board executive committee of the Milwaukee Bar Association, and active in the Milwaukee Inner City Congregations Allied for Hope.

Isabelle L. Faust is an associate attorney in the Milwaukee office of Amundsen Davis, LLC. She received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2012 and her J.D. (cum laude) from Marquette University Law School in 2018. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Ms. Faust concentrates her practice in professional liability, transportation, construction, and general commercial litigation.

Stephanie L. Finn is a shareholder in the Eau Claire law firm of Herrick & Hart, S.C. She received her B.A. (magna cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire in 1988 and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1991. She has a general practice with an emphasis on complex legal analysis and appellate law. She is admitted to practice in Wisconsin state courts, the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Matthew V. Fisher is a partner with Stafford Rosenbaum LLP in Milwaukee. He focuses on business and commercial disputes. He represents businesses and individuals in a wide range of matters, including securities and financial litigation, antitrust, class actions, construction, complex insurance-coverage disputes, business torts, products liability, contract disputes, and real estate litigation. Mr. Fisher received his law degree (cum laude) from the University of Minnesota Law School. He was awarded a master's degree in international relations from the University of Cambridge. He also graduated from the University of Iowa (high honors) with a bachelor's degree in history and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Stephen L. Fox is a shareholder with the Brookfield law firm of Schmidt, Rupke, Tess-Mattner & Fox, S.C. He received his B.B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1989 and his J.D. from Marquette University Law School in 1992. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Bar Association.

Robert L. Gegios concentrates his practice in business and commercial litigation, alternative dispute resolution, and general counseling in national and international settings. He is a former president of the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association and of The Thomas E. Fairchild Chapter of the American Inns of Court and a former Wisconsin co-chair of the Fellows of the American Bar Foundation. Mr. Gegios has held numerous leadership positions within the American Bar Association and other professional organizations.

Carly Gerads is a senior associate with Stafford Rosenbaum LLP in Milwaukee. She joined the firm in 2021 and focuses on commercial litigation, general litigation matters, and election and political law. Ms. Gerads received her undergraduate and law degrees from Marquette University.

Kurt A. Goehre is a partner at the law firm of Conway, Olejniczak & Jerry, S.C., Green Bay. He received his B.B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin.

Thomas Gonzalez is a partner in the Milwaukee office of Scopelitis, Garvin, Light, Hanson & Feary PC. His practice focuses on transportation litigation. He received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin, where he was a member and editor of the Wisconsin Law Review.

Erik G. Hassell is an attorney with von Briesen & Roper, s.c. He received his B.A. from Centre College and his J.D. from Notre Dame Law School. Mr. Hassell served as a law clerk to Judge Daniel P. Duffy of the Cook County (Ill.) Circuit Court. Mr. Hassell's practice includes personal injury, products liability, and business and commercial disputes.

Ann S. Jacobs is the founder of Jacobs Injury Law, S.C., Milwaukee. She graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School (cum laude). She began her legal career as a public defender before changing her emphasis to personal-injury litigation. She founded her firm, Jacobs Injury Law, in 2013. Her practice includes personal injuries, medical malpractice, and nursing home abuse and neglect on behalf of injured persons. Ms. Jacobs is a frequent speaker on the topics of litigation, subrogation, and ethics. She is a past president of the Wisconsin Association for Justice (WAJ) and a founding member of the WAJ's Women's Caucus and received the Robert L. Habush Trial Lawyer of the Year Award, the WAJ's highest honor. She serves on the board of the Wisconsin Equal Justice Fund. She is a coauthor of chapters in the State Bar of Wisconsin books The Law of Damages in Wisconsin and Advising Older Clients and Their Families. She has been named to Superlawyers for 20 years and has also been named to Best Lawyers and Best Law Firm. She is a commissioner on the Wisconsin Elections Commission and currently serves as its chair.

Kristin Johnson is counsel with Acciona Energy USA Global LLC, Chicago, Ill. She formerly was a commercial real estate attorney with Foley & Lardner LLP, Milwaukee. She received her B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania and her J.D. from Columbia University Law School, where she was a member of the Columbia Human Rights Law Review.

Robert J. Kasieta is a 1983 graduate of Marquette University Law School. He clerked for the Dane County Chief Judge in 1984. In August 1997, he founded Kasieta Legal Group, LLC, Madison, focusing on personal-injury, insurance, corporate litigation, and employment law. Mr. Kasieta is a Certified Civil Pretrial and Trial Specialist by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. He is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates. He has taught dozens of continuing legal education courses and has also taught trial advocacy and pretrial advocacy at the University of Wisconsin Law School for more than 25 years.

Paul A. Kinne is a partner at Gingras, Thomsen & Wachs, Madison. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin–Madison and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin, graduating from law school in 1993. His practice includes employment law, civil rights, professional malpractice, personal injury, products liability, and lender liability.

Matthew D. Lee is a partner in the Madison office of Foley & Lardner LLP. He received his B.A. (magna cum laude) in 2002 from the University of Notre Dame and his J.D. (magna cum laude) in 2006 from the University of Alabama. Mr. Lee practices in the areas of bankruptcy, restructuring, and real estate and business litigation. He has worked on a number of real estate and eminent domain cases in both state and federal court.

Eric W. Lengell is an attorney with Zilske Law Firm S.C. He assists employers, insurance carriers, and third-party administrators with all phases of worker's compensation, from initial claim handling through formal hearings and appeals. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin–Madison and Marquette University Law School, where he was a member of the Marquette Law Review.

Riley C. Leonard is an attorney at Gingras, Thomsen & Wachs, Madison. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Alaska Southeast and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School. His practice focuses on civil litigation. Mr. Leonard handles cases involving wrongful death, personal injury, medical malpractice, and employment law. He is an author of the State Bar of Wisconsin books The Law of Damages in Wisconsin and Wisconsin Civil Litigation Forms Manual and has been published in the Wisconsin International Law Journal. When not practicing law, Mr. Leonard likes to spend time outdoors, traveling, and cooking.

Justin H. Lessner is a partner at Axley Brynson, LLP, Madison, where he practices in the areas of commercial litigation, construction litigation, professional-liability and personal-injury defense, and eminent domain. Mr. Lessner graduated from the University of Colorado Boulder and earned his law degree, with honors, from Chicago-Kent College of Law.

Kristen E. Lonergan is a partner at Crooks Law Firm S.C. in Wausau, where she practices primarily personal-injury law and family law. She received her law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2010. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin–Madison in 2007.

Thomas J. Lonzo is a partner with the law firm The Rose Group in Milwaukee. He received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1989 and also attended law school at Creighton University, where he was a member of the Creighton Law Review. His practice has included representation of ship owners, charterers, insurers, sailors, longshore workers, and others on a variety of admiralty issues in both federal and state courts.

Patrick J. Lubenow is special counsel with the Milwaukee office of Amundsen Davis, LLC. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin–Madison in 1981 and his J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1984. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Illinois State Bar Association. Mr. Lubenow concentrates his practice in the defense of insurance companies and their insureds, including professional liability, and also handles product liability matters and litigation involving construction, automobile, trucking, and catastrophic-injury defense.

Theodore V. Lyons, Jr., is a shareholder in the Janesville law firm of Meier, Wickhem, Lyons, & Schulz, S.C. He received his B.A. from Grove City College and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1978.

J. Ryan Maloney is an attorney at Generac. He received his B.A. (cum laude) from Marquette University and his J.D. from Marquette University Law School. Mr. Maloney served as law clerk to the late Judge John L. Coffey of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Mr. Maloney's practice has included products liability, premises liability, personal injury, insurance coverage, and business and commercial disputes, as well as professional-liability matters and appellate representation.

Melita M. Mullen is a shareholder at Bell, Moore & Richter, S.C., Madison, where she practices in civil litigation, insurance defense, and insurance-coverage litigation. She received her B.A. (with honors) from Vassar College and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Ms. Mullen is a contributing author to the State Bar of Wisconsin publications Anderson on Wisconsin Insurance Law, The Law of Damages in Wisconsin, and Wisconsin Condominium Law Handbook.

James T. Murray, Jr., was a shareholder with the firm of von Briesen & Roper, s.c., Milwaukee. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin and his J.D. (cum laude) from Marquette University, where he was a member of the Marquette Law Review. Before practicing law, he served as a law clerk to the late Chief Justice Bruce F. Beilfuss of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Mr. Murray was a past president of the Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin, a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates, and a notary public with the state of Wisconsin. Mr. Murray tried more than 150 cases to verdict, including medical drug and device, commercial fraud, products liability, and insurance bad-faith cases. He lectured regularly on these and related topics.

Patrick S. Nolan is a partner with the Milwaukee office of Quarles & Brady LLP, focusing on products liability, personal injury, and insurance coverage litigation. He attended the London School of Economics and Political Science (1991–92), received his B.S. from Boston College in 1993, and received his J.D. in 1997 from Marquette University Law School, where he served as managing editor of the Marquette Law Review. Mr. Nolan is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Defense Research Institute, Wisconsin Defense Counsel, and the Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association.

Jacqueline C. Nuckels is an attorney with Nuckels Law, LLC, Oconomowoc. Her practice is devoted exclusively to the representation of individuals who have been seriously injured in automobile collisions, truck accidents, or premises accidents or as a result of nursing home abuse or neglect. Ms. Nuckels is a 2004 graduate of Marquette University Law School. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Association for Justice (WAJ), and the American Association for Justice. She serves on the boards of WAJ and the State Bar of Wisconsin's Litigation Section. In addition to practicing law, Ms. Nuckels is involved in her community. She serves on the boards of Little Lambs Christian Child Care & Preschool and The Box Theatre Co. and is current president of the Oconomowoc Public Education Foundation. She is also active in her daughters' school district and activities.

Daniel A. Peterson is an attorney in Milwaukee and Racine focusing on civil litigation. Mr. Peterson is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin. He received B.A. degrees in geology and environmental studies from Macalester College, an M.S. in geoscience from Pennsylvania State University, and his J.D. from the University of Minnesota.

David J. Pliner is a shareholder in the Madison firm of Corneille Law Group, LLC. Mr. Pliner obtained his B.A. (magna cum laude) from the University of Minnesota in 1986 and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1989. He is a member of the Defense Research Institute, and he focuses his practice on motion and appellate work.

Terrence M. Polich is a partner at Lawton & Cates, S.C., Madison, concentrating in personal-injury, professional-negligence, and warranty litigation. Mr. Polich received his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School and his bachelor's degree from Carroll College.

Elizabeth D. Reeths is a partner with the Wausau law firm of Kramer Shull Reeths LLP. She received a B.A. from the University of Michigan in 2008 and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 2011. Ms. Reeths is a past treasurer of the State Bar of Wisconsin and past chair of the State Bar's Continuing Legal Education Committee. She was the chair of the Young Lawyers Division of the Marathon County Bar Association from 2012 to 2015. Ms. Reeths is admitted to practice in Wisconsin, Michigan, the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Noah B. Relles graduated from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law in 2016. He clerked for the Windham County Superior Court in Vermont (2016–18) and for Justice Karen Carroll of the Vermont Supreme Court (2019). He has practiced civil litigation in Madison since 2020. In June 2022, Mr. Relles joined the Kasieta Legal Group, where his practice focuses on personal-injury, insurance, corporate litigation, employment law, and civil rights cases. He also has assisted numerous applicants before the Wisconsin Pardon Advisory Board.

Morgan A. Richie is a Project Attorney at Volunteer Lawyers Network in Minneapolis. She provides legal services to low-income individuals. Ms. Richie graduated from the College of St. Scholastica and earned her law degree from Mitchell Hamline School of Law (magna cum laude).

Adam R. Roznowski is an attorney at Habush, Habush & Rottier, S.C. His practice consists of a wide variety of civil litigation matters. Mr. Roznowski received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin–Madison and law degree (magna cum laude) from Marquette University Law School.

Brian A. Schuk focuses his practice mainly on landlord-tenant law, representing both landlords and tenants. After being a partner of Wassel, Harvey & Schuk, LLP, for 12 years, Mr. Schuk opened his own law firm, Schuk Law, LLC, in June 2017. He continues to represent businesses and individuals by assisting with negotiating and drafting leases, evictions, and damages and security deposit disputes. Mr. Schuk has been a regular presenter at programs on landlord-tenant law for many years. He also has been an adjunct professor at the University of Wisconsin Law School and Marquette University Law School. He wrote “New Law Gives Landlords More Tools to Remove Problem Tenants,” in the State Bar of Wisconsin’s InsideTrack newsletter, discussing the changes to landlord-tenant law resulting from 2015 Wis. Act 176; and authored chapter 7, Evictions, and coauthored chapter 8, Legal Proceedings and Recovery of Damages, in the State Bar of Wisconsin publication Wisconsin Landlord & Tenant Manual. In addition, Mr. Schuk represents clients in commercial and residential real estate, probate administration, and estate planning. He is an active member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and a former president of the Walworth County Bar Association. Mr. Schuk received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and his J.D. from Marquette University Law School.

Allison V. Shepard is the owner of the Eau Claire law firm Shepard Law, S.C. She received her B.A. (cum laude) from Loyola University Chicago in 2006 and her J.D. from Marquette University Law School. She has a general practice with an emphasis on litigation and family law. She is admitted to practice in Wisconsin and the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin.

Katherine D. Spitz has over 15 years of experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants in all stages of civil litigation. She has tried cases on topics ranging from federal tax issues and property disputes to employment and civil rights claims on behalf of public employees, state agencies, private individuals, and corporations. Ms. Spitz is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and Notre Dame Law School. She currently operates a dispute resolution practice in Waukesha County.

Gary S. Stanislawski is a shareholder with Zilske Law Firm S.C., Brookfield. He received his B.A., in 1994, and his J.D., in 1997, from Marquette University. His practice concentrates on defending worker’s compensation claims and advising clients on related issues. He is a member of the Defense Research Institute.

Morgan K. Stippel is an attorney at Burns Bair LLP, Madison, where she practices insurance litigation and concentrates in matters against insurance companies. She earned her B.S. (summa cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin-River Falls and her J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School. She is admitted to practice in all Wisconsin state courts, the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Ms. Stippel has been recognized as a Super Lawyers Rising Star (2022–24), and she was selected by her peers for inclusion in the 2024 and 2025 Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch for her work in commercial litigation. Ms. Stippel takes pride in her active involvement in the legal community. In addition to her legal practice, she is an adjunct professor at the University of Wisconsin Law School, where she teaches trial advocacy to mock trial students and coaches mock trial teams at competitions. For three consecutive years, she served on the Dane County Legal Association for Women board and organized its annual “I Resolve” Fundraiser to benefit Domestic Abuse Intervention Services. Ms. Stippel has also provided pro bono services through Legal Action of Wisconsin by authoring pardon applications and volunteering at expungement clinics. In her free time, she enjoys spending quality time with family and friends, visiting new restaurants, curling up with a good book, attending high intensity interval training classes, and cheering on the Badgers and Packers.

Kimberly D. Sweatt is an attorney at Palmersheim Dettmann, S.C., Middleton. She received her undergraduate degree in legal studies from the University of Wisconsin–Madison and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Her practice focuses on business litigation, including general contract disputes, shareholder oppression, and employment law. When she is not advocating for clients, Ms. Sweatt enjoys traveling and spending time outdoors with family and friends.

Kent A. Tess-Mattner is of counsel with the Brookfield law firm of Schmidt, Rupke, Tess-Mattner & Fox, S.C. He received his B.A. (cum laude) from Carroll College and his J.D. from Marquette University. Before entering private practice, he was law clerk to Chief Judge John A. Decker of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. He has co-chaired the Civil Litigation Section of the Milwaukee Bar Association and has chaired the State Bar of Wisconsin’s Appellate Practice Section. He is also a past president of the Society of Family Lawyers and The Leander J. Foley Matrimonial Inns of Court. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and is a Fellow of the Wisconsin Law Foundation.

David J. Turek is a partner at Gass Turek LLC and concentrates on complex civil litigation and insurance coverage disputes. Mr. Turek graduated from Carthage College and earned his law degree (summa cum laude) from Marquette University. He is a member of the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel and a Fellow in the Litigation Counsel of America and frequently speaks to other lawyers about trial practice, damages, and insurance coverage issues.

Susan R. Tyndall is a shareholder at Habush, Habush & Rottier, S.C., Waukesha. She received her B.A. from the University of Illinois and her J.D. (cum laude) from Marquette University Law School. She practices principally in civil litigation, with an emphasis on appellate litigation and insurance coverage. Ms. Tyndall has served on the board of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Appellate Practice Section, also serving as program chair and chair of the section. She was the founding editor of the former Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin's Wisconsin Civil Trial Journal and was its editor from its inception until 2006. Ms. Tyndall authors a chapter on judgments in the State Bar of Wisconsin book Wisconsin Trial Practice and a chapter on legal malpractice in The Law of Damages in Wisconsin. Ms. Tyndall is a frequent speaker and author on tort and insurance topics.

Russell M. Ware was a shareholder with SmithAmundsen LLC in Milwaukee before retiring from the active practice of law. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin–Madison and his J.D. from Marquette University. He served as a law clerk to Chief Justice E. Harold Hallows of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. He was a trial lawyer for 40 years, concentrating on professional liability and personal-injury matters, and tried well over 100 civil jury trials to conclusion. He has served as a mediator and arbitrator in civil cases. He has authored more than 35 articles on professional liability, trial practice, and dispute resolution in national and statewide publications, and has spoken at continuing legal education seminars throughout the state of Wisconsin. He is a former president of the Wisconsin Defense Counsel (formerly Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin) and is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates.

Michael J. Wirth is a 1999 graduate of Marquette University Law School and has been a civil trial attorney since graduation. He is a shareholder in the Milwaukee office of von Briesen & Roper, s.c. He handles third-party civil actions on behalf of insurers and their insureds, first-party breach-of-contract claims on behalf of insurers, and bad-faith claims made against insurance-company clients. He has tried cases in more than a dozen Wisconsin jurisdictions and has either authored the briefs for or argued several seminal Wisconsin appellate court cases, including Dahmen v. American Family Mutual Insurance Co., 2001 WI App 198, 247 Wis. 2d 541, 635 N.W. 2d 1; Martin v. American Family Mutual Insurance Co., 2002 WI 40, 252 Wis. 2d 103, 643 N.W.2d 452; and Wolf v. American Family Mutual Insurance Co., 2015 WI App 36, 361 Wis. 2d 756, 865 N.W.2d 186.

Tiffany E. Woelfel is a litigation partner in the Green Bay and Appleton offices of Amundsen Davis, LLC. She received her B.S. from the University of Minnesota and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin. After law school, Ms. Woelfel was a judicial law clerk for the Honorable William C. Griesbach, then-Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, and for the Honorable Joe B. McDade, senior judge in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of Illinois. She concentrates her practice on civil litigation, with an emphasis on federal civil litigation, including intellectual property and business disputes.

Samantha J. Wood is an attorney with Lindner & Marsack, S.C., a Milwaukee law firm concentrating its practice in labor and employment law. She received her J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Ms. Wood represents management in all aspects of labor and employment law, including wage and hour, employment discrimination defense, unemployment insurance, immigration, family and medical leave, restrictive covenant agreements, collective bargaining, and labor arbitration.

Past Authors

| | |
|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| Neifor B. Acosta | Kevin Lonergan |
| Timothy J. Aiken | Marcia A. MacKenzie |
| Susan K. Allen | Thomas W. Mackenzie |
| Thomas D. Bell | Jeffrey A. Mandell |
| Terry J. Booth | Alan Marcuvitz |
| Mackenzie E. Campbell | Steven P. Means |
| Kelly L. Centofanti | Michael Mesirow |
| Alan Clack | Thomas K. Mullins |
| Gregory B. Conway | David W. Neeb |
| Barrett Corneille | Barbara A. Neider |
| Claude J. Covelli | Tara L. Nielsen |
| M. Christine Cowles | Kathy L. Nusslock |
| Joseph P. Danas, Jr. | Teresa E. O'Halloran |
| Paul E. David | F. Thomas Olson |
| Patrick O. Dunphy | Winston Ostrow |
| Timothy D. Edwards | Randy S. Parlee |
| David N. Farwell | Jamae Pennings |
| Carl D. Fortner | Mark A. Peterson |
| Anderson M. Gansner | Donald H. Piper |
| James E. Garvey | Lyman A. Precourt |
| J. Ric Gass | Sara H. Quirt |
| Chad R. Gendreau | Jacob R. Reis |
| Melissa L. Greipp | George A. Richards |
| John W. Hein | Ward I. Richter |
| Rebecca M. Hillary | Daniel A. Riedl |
| Charles D. Hoorstra | Andrea H. Roschke |
| Sarah F. Kaas | Catherine M. Rottier |
| Victoria M. Karcher | Brian H. Sande |
| Margaret V. Kaiser | Anne E. Schmiede |
| Walter F. Kelley | Steven J. Schooler |
| Nicholas W. Kitzman | Paul W. Schwarzenbart |
| Mark M. Leitner | Frederick J. Smith |
| Benjamin D. Levin | Marie A. Stanton |

Jay R. Starrett
Harney B. Stover, Jr.
Steven M. Streck
Robert D. Sundby
Jonathan T. Swain
Benjamin P. Sykes
Michael I. Tarnoff
Stephen D.R. Taylor
Scott B. Thompson
Louis J. Thorson

Mary C. Turke
Eric J. Van Vugt
John Walsh
Nick Welle
Paul C. Werkowski
R. Mark Williamson
John M. Yackel
Patrick M. Zabrowski
Alyson K. Zierdt
Robert H. Zilske

How to Cite This Book

Cite this book in briefs and legal memoranda as:

The Law of Damages in Wisconsin (Russell M. Ware ed., 9th ed. 2023).

[See The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation R. 15, B15.1 (Columbia L. Rev. Ass'n et al. eds., 21st ed. 2020).]

After the first full citation, you may cite this book as:

The Law of Damages, supra, § ____.

[See The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation R. 4.2(a), 15.10, B15.2 (Columbia L. Rev. Ass'n et al. eds., 21st ed. 2020).]