

About the Authors

---

Kent L. Schlienger is a member of the Madison law firm Neider & Boucher, S.C. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1982 and his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1985. Mr. Schlienger is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the American Bar Association, and the Business Law Sections of both bars. His practice focuses on entity formation and governance, mergers and acquisitions, and venture capital financing. Mr. Schlienger was one of the coauthors of the original edition of this book published in 1991 and has been the primary author of its subsequent supplements and revised editions.

Joseph W. Boucher is a founding shareholder of Neider & Boucher, S.C. His practice emphasizes business legal planning for closely held businesses. He received a B.A. degree from St. Norbert College and his J.D. and M.B.A. degrees from the University of Wisconsin and is a certified public accountant. He currently teaches business law at the Wisconsin School of Business. Mr. Boucher is a codrafter of Wisconsin's limited liability company (LLC) law, limited liability partnership law, and 2002 Next Economy Legislation and a member of the committee currently revising Wisconsin's LLC law. In addition to this work, he is the author of Drafting LLC and Partnership Agreements (2011) and an author of LLCs and LLPs: A Wisconsin Handbook. He has coauthored several articles for Wisconsin Lawyer magazine, including a December 2010 article on estate planning for digital assets, which won the Charles Dunn Award for writing excellence, presented annually by the State Bar Communications Committee.

Charles E. Neider is a shareholder and the president of Neider & Boucher, S.C. His practice is focused on business law, including business formation, financing, tax, operational, and governance matters. He represents closely held companies in a variety of industries, including real estate, construction, professional services, insurance, food services, life sciences, and high technology. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1971 and his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1975.

Attorney Michelle A. Behnke and former Wisconsin attorney Claire J. Holtz also contributed to the original edition of this book in 1991.