

About the Authors

---

Andrew I. Martinez is a partner at Martinez & Ruby, LLP, in Baraboo, Wisconsin. Mr. Martinez is admitted to practice in Wisconsin, and he is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Sauk County Bar Association. During law school, Mr. Martinez served as senior managing editor of the Wisconsin Law Review and participated in the Legal Assistance to Institutionalized Persons (LAIP) program. Andrew is bilingual in English and Spanish.

Dennis M. Melowski is the head of Melowski and Associates, LLC, in Kohler, Wisconsin. His practice is exclusively devoted to the defense of serious alcohol-related traffic offenses and crimes. He has argued before the Wisconsin Supreme Court on numerous occasions. Mr. Melowski is a frequent speaker at legal seminars in Wisconsin and elsewhere in the country. He is actively involved as a charter member of the Wisconsin Drunk Driving Roundtable and is a life member of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers.

Todd E. Meurer is the municipal judge for the joint court of the towns of Madison, Middleton, and Verona. He recently retired as the manager of municipal court education at the Office of Judicial Education at the Director of State Courts. Judge Meurer previously served as a circuit court commissioner for Dane County, a position he occupied for about 30 years. Before then, he was an assistant district attorney for Dane County. Judge Meurer also served as municipal judge for the town of Madison from 1988 to 1991. He has served as a member of numerous Department of Transportation and Wisconsin Supreme Court committees. In addition, he previously edited several chapters of the Wisconsin Municipal Judge Benchbook and the Wisconsin Judicial Benchbook: Criminal and Traffic. As municipal judge and circuit court commissioner, he has received statewide and national recognition for his expertise in traffic safety issues. Also, he received a National “Commendation Award” from the National Commission Against Drunk Driving in 1989. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School.

Cole D. Ruby is a partner at Martinez & Ruby, LLP. Mr. Ruby is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School and a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Dane County and Sauk County Bar Associations. He is also a member of the Wisconsin Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. In 2014, he received a Wisconsin Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers' Martin Hanson Advocate's Prize, which is awarded to Wisconsin attorneys who won an acquittal in a homicide case. Mr. Ruby formerly volunteered with the Legal Defense Program.

John J. Sobotik is an attorney for the Wisconsin Department of Transportation (DOT). He completed his undergraduate studies at Stanford University and received his law degree from the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Sobotik worked in private practice for five years before joining the legal staff at the DOT. He provides legal advice to the Division of Motor Vehicles on driver licensing and other traffic issues. He lectures throughout the state on laws related to driver licensing and impaired driving.

Zachary D. Wyatt is an attorney with the Wisconsin Legislative Reference Bureau, where he drafts legislation in the area of transportation. He was previously the senior policy analyst in the Wisconsin Department of Transportation's Bureau of Transportation Safety and served as the legislative liaison for the Division of State Patrol.

Past Authors:

Barry S. Cohen
Thomas J. Hammer
Ralph A. Kalal
Robert E. Kindschi
Joe Maassen
John F. McNally
Christopher A. Mutschler