

About the Authors

Maren Beermann concentrates her work in the elder law fields of guardianships, advance directives, mental health, consumer protection, and protective placement and services. She graduated in 2008 from Chicago–Kent College of Law and received her undergraduate degree in journalism and mass communication from the University of Wisconsin–Madison in 2005. Maren is a member of the Wisconsin Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and has had articles published in the Wisconsin Lawyer and the Elder Law Journal of Wisconsin. Maren also authored chapter 15 and coauthored chapter 16 of the third edition of Advising Older Clients and Their Families, a PINNACLE publication, and has presented on many elder law topics to a variety of audiences statewide.

Gretchen Viney is a clinical professor at the University of Wisconsin Law School, where she is the director of the Lawyering Skills program (formerly General Practice), and is a partner in the firm of Viney & Viney, Baraboo. She received her B.A. with highest honors from the University of Wyoming and her J.D. with honors from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Ms. Viney is author of chapter 6 (Guardianship: Chapter 54) in the Guardian ad Litem Handbook and coauthor of chapter 16 of the third edition of Advising Older Clients and Their Families. She is a frequent speaker at continuing legal education seminars, generally focusing on guardian ad litem work. Among her other duties at the law school, Professor Viney teaches Guardian ad Litem Practice in Wisconsin so that her students are eligible to take guardian ad litem appointments upon graduation and licensure.

