

About the Supplement Authors

Caleb R. Gerbitz is an attorney at Meissner Tierney Fisher & Nichols S.C., Milwaukee, where he practices complex commercial, insurance, and appellate litigation. He received his B.S. in economics from the University of Wisconsin–Madison and his J.D. (summa cum laude) from Mitchell Hamline School of Law, where he served as head managing editor of the Mitchell Hamline Law Review. Before entering private practice, Mr. Gerbitz served as a law clerk to Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Brian Hagedorn.

Morgan K. Stippel is an attorney at Burns Bair LLP, Madison, where she practices insurance litigation and specializes in matters against insurance companies. She earned her B.S. (summa cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin–River Falls and her J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School. She is admitted to practice in all Wisconsin state courts, the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Ms. Stippel has been recognized as a Super Lawyers Rising Star from 2022 to 2024, and she was selected by her peers for inclusion in the 2024 and 2025 Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch for her work in commercial litigation. Ms. Stippel takes pride in her active involvement in the legal community. In addition to her legal practice, she is an adjunct professor at the University of Wisconsin Law School, where she teaches trial advocacy to mock trial students and coaches mock trial teams at competitions. For three consecutive years, she served as a board member of the Dane County Legal Association for Women and organized its annual “I Resolve” Fundraiser to benefit Domestic Abuse Intervention Services. Ms. Stippel has also provided pro bono services through Legal Action of Wisconsin by authoring pardon applications and volunteering at expungement clinics. In her free time, she enjoys spending quality time with family and friends, visiting new restaurants, curling up with a good book, attending high intensity interval training classes, and cheering on the Badgers and Packers.

