

About the Supplement Authors

Daniel J. Kersey is an associate with Quarles & Brady LLP and a member of its Business Law Group. He focuses his practice on mergers and acquisitions and private equity transactions. He joined Quarles & Brady LLP in 2017 from Sidley Austin LLP, where he was an associate in its Corporate Group from 2014 to 2017. Mr. Kersey received his B.B.A. in Accounting from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and his J.D. (summa cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School.

Jon P. Monna is a business lawyer with Foley & Lardner LLP and a member of the firm's Transactions Practice. Mr. Monna regularly represents companies in a variety of industries on mergers and acquisition transactions, and corporate and securities-related matters. Mr. Monna is a graduate of the University of Rochester (B.A., cum laude, 2010). He obtained his law degree from SUNY Buffalo Law School (J.D., cum laude, 2013).

Ryan P. Morrison is a partner in the Milwaukee office of Quarles & Brady LLP, practicing in the areas of corporate finance, securities regulation, mergers and acquisitions, and general corporate law. Mr. Morrison is national chair of the firm's Corporate Finance/Securities team and national vice-chair of the Business Law Group. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and his law degree from the University of Wisconsin.

Collin M. Scheuermann formerly was an associate and business lawyer with Foley & Lardner LLP. Mr. Scheuermann regularly represented public and private companies on general corporate and business law matters. He was a member of the firm's Transactions Practice. Mr. Scheuermann's work has focused on mergers and acquisitions transactions, corporate reorganizations, debt offerings, SEC disclosure requirements, shareholder proposals, proxy advisory services, activism preparedness planning, and general corporate governance matters. Mr. Scheuermann earned his law degree from the University of Michigan Law School, where he was a contributing editor for the Michigan Journal of Law Reform. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Melissa Villaveces is a special counsel and business lawyer with Foley & Lardner LLP. Ms. Villaveces focuses her practice on general corporate and business law, with an emphasis in securities law, corporate governance, and mergers and acquisitions. Ms. Villaveces received her law degree, with honors, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. She earned both a master's degree and bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Florida Fisher School of Accounting and is a certified public accountant (inactive status).