

About the Authors

Rebecca R. DeMarb is a partner with DeMarb Brophy LLC, Madison, Wisconsin. She represents businesses and other interested parties in the sale of business assets, state court receiverships, and out-of-court business reorganizations. She often serves as the receiver for operating and liquidating businesses, as well as in real estate matters. Ms. DeMarb has been certified in business bankruptcy by the American Board of Certification since 2005. She has been AV rated by Martindale Hubbell since 2012. In 2014, she was a winner of the 8th Annual M & A Advisor Turnaround Awards for the Anchor BanCorp, Inc., Chapter 11 bankruptcy case, and a winner of the 9th Annual M & A Advisor Small Transaction of the Year in 2016. Ms. DeMarb was on the winning team of the Small Transaction of the Year by Turnaround Management Association, National and Mid-west, in 2015. She served on the Milwaukee committee for Turnaround Management Association in 2012, serves on the Advisory Board for the American Bankruptcy Institute's Central States Conference, and served on the Board for the Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Creditors' Rights Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin from 2014 to 2017. In 2017, Ms. DeMarb founded the Wisconsin Network for the International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation and now serves on the Wisconsin and the International Boards.

Catherine J. Furay is the Chief U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Western District of Wisconsin. Before her appointment, she practiced bankruptcy, commercial law, and business litigation in Madison, Wisconsin. A graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School, Judge Furay has been a frequent lecturer on bankruptcy, commercial law, ethics, marital property, and litigation skills. She served as an adjunct faculty member at the University of Wisconsin Law School, teaching lawyering skills for 21 years. She also served as an instructor in the General Practice Course. In addition to being coauthor of this book, Judge Furay coauthored the Wisconsin Civil Litigation Forms Manual, also published by State Bar of Wisconsin. She is a contributing author of Construction Law, ch. 16 "Bankruptcy" (Steven G.M. Stein, ed., 2006 & Supp. 2017). In 2019 Judge Furay became the editor-in-chief of Ginsberg & Martin on Bankruptcy, Wolters Kluwer. She is also the author of several articles on various bankruptcy, collection, marital property, and litigation topics. Judge Furay has served on the board of governors and various committees of the State Bar of Wisconsin, including its executive and finance committees. Judge Furay is a member of the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges (NCBJ), served as the Seventh Circuit representative on the NCBJ's board of governors, and is a member of the NCBJ's Finance and Online Learning Committees. She also has served on the Elections, NextGen, and Technology Committees of NCBJ. She is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute and currently serves as judicial co-chair for the Education Advisory Committees for the Central States Bankruptcy Conference and as a judicial advisor for the Wedoff Chicago Consumer Bankruptcy Conference. Judge Furay is a member of the Turnaround Management Association, past president of the Certification Oversight Committee, and a member of the board of trustees. She is a member of the Bankruptcy Judges Advisory Group of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts and serves on various other working groups.

Robert (Bob) A. Pasch is a shareholder in the firm of Murphy Desmond S.C. He received his B.A. in 1968 from Tulane University and his J.D. in 1972 from the University of Wisconsin Law School. He has practiced law in Madison since 1972 and is admitted to practice in the state of Wisconsin, the U.S. District Courts for the Western and Eastern District of Wisconsin, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Wisconsin, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, and the U.S. Supreme Court. His practice emphasizes creditors' rights, collection law, contract law, general business representation, real and personal property leases, and commercial law and litigation. In collection matters, he has represented a broad spectrum of local, national, and international clients, from small business to Fortune 500 companies. His clients include wholesalers, retailers, manufacturers, distributors, financial institutions, loan companies, automobile dealerships, leasing companies, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, agribusinesses, and landlords. He advises credit managers and business personnel on credit and collection policies and procedures. Pasch also represents lenders and borrowers in commercial and real estate transactions, as well as credit facilities—both at the front end as to loan structuring and documentation, intercreditor agreements, guarantees, and related financing arrangements—and at the back end as to workouts, forbearance agreements, and enforcement of rights and remedies. He is a member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of Wisconsin, Commercial Law League of America, International Association of Commercial Collectors, and ACA International and National Association of Retail Collection

Attorneys. He is a frequent lecturer for a variety of continuing education providers. Mr. Pasch authored Wisconsin Collection Law (1993 and 2006 editions), published by Thomson/West, which is now volumes 12 and 13 of the Wisconsin Practice Series, with annual supplements. Mr. Pasch is rated AV by Martindale-Hubbell.

Nicole I. Pellerin is an associate with Murphy Desmond S.C., Madison, Wisconsin. She practices in the areas of creditors' rights, business bankruptcy and commercial litigation, consumer bankruptcy, and litigation. Ms. Pellerin is a 2005 graduate of the University of Texas at Austin and obtained her J.D. in 2008 from Chicago-Kent College of Law. She is admitted to practice in the state of Wisconsin, the state of Illinois, the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, and the U.S. Tax Court. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Dane County Bar Association, and the Western District Bankruptcy Bar. Ms. Pellerin represents debtors, creditors, a chapter 128 receiver, and a Chapter 7 trustee in insolvency-related proceedings. In 2018, Ms. Pellerin was appointed to the Panel of Chapter 7 Trustees for the Western District of Wisconsin.

James Sweet is a partner with Steinhilber Swanson LLP in Madison. He represents businesses, individuals, and other interested parties throughout Wisconsin, northern Iowa, Minnesota, and northern Illinois in bankruptcy cases; state court receiverships; purchase or sale of business assets; and out-of-court restructuring, workouts, and reorganizations. Mr. Sweet has extensive experience representing debtors, creditor committees, bondholder committees, bankruptcy trustees, receivers, banks and other secured creditors, and purchasers of assets and businesses. His skills, knowledge, and experience have earned him inclusion in a myriad of professional associations and have garnered multiple awards. He is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings. In 2013, he was nationally recognized by his peers and colleagues by being chosen as a fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy, the profession's highest honor. Among his many awards are the 8th and 10th Annual M & A Advisor Turnaround Awards for the Anchor BanCorp, Inc., Chapter 11 bankruptcy case and in the LongVANS and Related Entities case, and the Turnaround Management Association National and Midwest Small Company Transaction awards for his service in the LongVANS case. Mr. Sweet is a frequent lecturer on bankruptcy, insolvency, and workout matters throughout the Midwest. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the American Bar Association, and the American Bankruptcy Institute. He is the past president and chairman of the American Boards of Certification.

Brian P. Thill is a trial attorney at the Office of the U.S. Trustee. Previously he was a shareholder in Murphy Desmond S.C. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and J.D. from Marquette University Law School, where he was a member of the Marquette Law Review. Mr. Thill is a frequent lecturer on insolvency-related topics, including foreclosure, bankruptcy, and debt collection. For eight years, Mr. Thill was also a coauthor of Wisconsin Collection Law, part of the Wisconsin Practice Series. He has previously served as a board member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Creditors' Rights Section and was a member of the Turnaround Management Association, National Equipment Finance Association, Wisconsin Association of Equipment Lessors, and Wisconsin Mortgage Bankers Association. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Dane County Bar Association. Mr. Thill also has experience in general civil litigation, appellate, title insurance, real estate law, landlord-tenant, construction, secured transactions, banking compliance, and general lease and business transactions. He is admitted to the Wisconsin Supreme Court and U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin and Northern District of Illinois.

Jane F. (Ginger) Zimmerman is a shareholder in Murphy Desmond S.C. and currently serves as the firm's president. She also chairs the firm's Creditors' Rights, Business Bankruptcy and Commercial Litigation Practice Group. She received her B.S.B.A. from Georgetown University and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Ms. Zimmerman has lectured and written on a variety of bankruptcy, commercial law, and business subjects. She is currently a member of the board for the Bankruptcy, Insolvency and Creditor Rights Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin. From 2005 to 2014, she was a member of the panel for the Annual Debtor-Creditor Law Conference presented by the University of Wisconsin, Continuing Legal Education for Wisconsin. She also has lectured for the University of Wisconsin Lawyering Skills program, has served on the faculty of the Certified Professional Turnaround Forensics Workshop, and has been a speaker and panelist for the Central State's Workshop of the American Bankruptcy Institute. Ms. Zimmerman is the author of "Bankruptcy in Wonderland: What Alice Needs to Know," Wisconsin Woman, Dec. 2006, and "Moving Vehicles No Longer Hidden Treasure," American Bankruptcy Institute Journal, Nov. 2005, Lien on Me Column. Ms. Zimmerman has been honored by Wisconsin Law Journal as an Outstanding Woman in the Law and is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell. She is admitted to practice in the state of Wisconsin, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, and the U.S. Supreme Court. Ms. Zimmerman is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, American Bar Association, Dane County Bar Association, Western District of Wisconsin Bar Association, Western District Bankruptcy Bar, Turnaround Management Association, and American Bankruptcy Institute. She is a founding officer of the Wisconsin Network of the International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation. She has served on various committees for these associations. Her practice includes business reorganizations and bankruptcy, secured transactions, creditors' rights and collection, and agricultural and commercial transactions and litigation. She represents creditors, debtors, receivers, and trustees in bankruptcies, collections, reorganizations, chapter 128 receiverships, and liquidations, and has served as a chapter 128 receiver.

Authors of Previous Edition

Charles G. Center
Brittany S. Ogden

