

About the Authors

Andrea Contreras is senior counsel at the law firm of Laffey, Leitner & Goode LLC in Milwaukee. Ms. Contreras is an experienced trial attorney. Her practice focuses on representing businesses and individuals in high-stakes business litigation. A transplant to the Midwest, Ms. Contreras is licensed to practice law in both Wisconsin and California. Ms. Contreras received her J.D. from Columbia Law School in New York City, where she was a member of the Columbia Science and Technology Law Review. Ms. Contreras graduated, cum laude, from the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, where she earned a dual bachelor's degree in neuroscience and political science.

Matthew V. Fisher is a partner with Stafford Rosenbaum LLP in Milwaukee. He focuses on business and commercial disputes. He represents businesses and individuals in a wide range of matters, including securities and financial litigation, antitrust, class actions, construction, complex insurance-coverage disputes, business torts, products liability, contract disputes, and real estate litigation. Mr. Fisher received his law degree, cum laude, from the University of Minnesota Law School, where he was an editor for the Minnesota Journal of International Law. He was awarded a master's degree in international relations from the University of Cambridge. He also graduated from the University of Iowa (high honors) with a bachelor's degree in history and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Anne-Louise T. Mittal is senior counsel at Foley & Lardner LLP in Milwaukee, where she is a member of the Business Litigation & Dispute Resolution practice, as well as the Appellate and the Consumer Law, Finance & Class Action practices. Before joining Foley, she was a clerk for the Honorable Diane S. Sykes of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Ms. Mittal serves on the Seventh Circuit Advisory Committee on Circuit Rules, the Seventh Circuit Civil Pattern Jury Instruction Committee, and the board of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Appellate Practice Section.

Eric G. Pearson is a partner in Foley & Lardner LLP's Milwaukee office and a member of the firm's Business Litigation & Dispute Resolution practice group. He is a member of the Rules Committee for the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, a past president of the Seventh Circuit Bar Association, and a former chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Appellate Practice Section. Before joining the firm, he was a law clerk for the Honorable Diane S. Sykes of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. He received his B.S. (2005) and J.D. (2007) degrees from Marquette University.

Christopher L. Strohbehn is a shareholder at Mallory s.c. in Milwaukee. Mr. Strohbehn has developed a diverse litigation practice that focuses on complex civil litigation, personal-injury litigation, insurance coverage litigation, and commercial property tax appeals. His practice extends throughout Wisconsin. Mr. Strohbehn is also experienced in litigating in appellate courts across the state, including serving as lead counsel in cases that were litigated at the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Mr. Strohbehn is a past president of the Milwaukee Young Lawyers Association and was a member of the board for six years. He also sat as an alternate on the city of Milwaukee's Administrative Review Board of Appeals and was president of a large downtown condominium association. He is a board member of the Wisconsin Association for Justice.

Barry R. White is a shareholder in the Milwaukee office of von Briesen & Roper, s.c., where he is a member of the commercial litigation and business law practice groups and co-chairs the firm's fiduciary litigation practice group. He received his B.A., cum laude, from Albion College in 1987 and his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School in 1989. Mr. White is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Bar Association (MBA). He is the chair for the Southeastern Wisconsin District of the State Bar's Fee Arbitration Program, with which he also serves as an arbitrator. He is a past member of the MBA's Judicial Selection Committee and chairs the village of Germantown Board of Zoning Appeals. For more than a decade he was an on-air legal commentator for a local Milwaukee radio station and, for more than 20 years, taught continuing legal education courses on legal ethics throughout Wisconsin.

Authors of Previous Editions

Susan K. Allen	Trent M. Johnson
Paul D. Bauer	Kathryn A. Keppel
Reginald A. Emshoff	William J. Mulligan
Nathan A. Fishbach	Terry F. Peppard
Franklyn M. Gimbel	Andrew J. Wronski
Elizabeth A. N. Haas	