

About the Authors

---

Michael C. Ablan is a 1974 graduate of Marquette University Law School and holds a degree in Business Administration from Gustavus Adolphus College (1971). He is a member of the Wisconsin and Minnesota State Bars and practices in both states. Attorney Ablan is also admitted to practice in the United States Tax Court and the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. His emphasis in practice is on business, tax, real estate, trusts and estates and personal injury settlements. He has taught for 26 years in business law, business startups, healthcare administration law and administrative law in LaCrosse at the University of Wisconsin (both graduate and undergraduate), Viterbo University, and Western Wisconsin Technical College.

Brett J. Armstrong is a principal and the chief financial officer of Trident Contract Management, LLC. He is a member of the Technology Financial Officers Roundtable. Mr. Armstrong serves on several boards and advisory boards for privately held businesses and charitable organizations. He was formerly an analyst with Madison Valuation Associates (now Capital Valuation Group). He received his BBA in Finance (1992), JD (1996) cum laude, and MBA in Accounting (1999) from University of Wisconsin-Madison. He was the recipient of the CALI Excellence For The Future Award for Limited Liability Law (1995). Mr. Armstrong was also an intern for the Honorable Robert D. Martin, Chief Judge United States Bankruptcy Court, Western District of Wisconsin.

Peter C. Christianson is a partner in the Madison office of Quarles & Brady LLP, where his practice emphasizes the representation of trade and professional associations and corporations before the Wisconsin Legislature, the Governor's Office, and state administrative agencies. He is a frequent lecturer on Wisconsin's lobby, ethics, and election and campaign finance laws. He is a regional editor and author of the Wisconsin chapter of Lobbying, PACs, and Campaign Finance 50 State Handbook, published by Thomson West (1994 through 2008 editions). A graduate of UW-Madison (1971) and the UW Law School (1977), he is a member of the UW Foundation and will be Chairman of the Board of the Wisconsin Alumni Association in 2009–2010.

Reginald A. Emshoff is president of Capital Valuation Group, Inc., (formerly Madison Valuation Associates). He obtained his B.S. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School. For more than 25 years he has specialized in the area of privately held business equity valuations and has extensive experience in testifying as an expert in both state and federal courts on the topic of business valuation and business damages. Mr. Emshoff has taught many seminars for lawyers, judges, students, and business owners, is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, and serves on the boards of local nonprofit community services organizations.

Andrew J. Guzikowski is a shareholder in the Milwaukee office of Whyte, Hirschboek, Dudek SC. His practice emphasizes securities (corporate and transactional) and public finance law. He heads the firm's securities and public finance practice teams. He received his undergraduate degree from the U.W.-Milwaukee and his J.D. from the U.W-Madison School of Law (cum laude). Mr. Guzikowski is a member of the National Association of Bond Lawyers, the Milwaukee Bond Club, Inc., and the State Bar of Wisconsin, where he serves on the Board of Directors of the Business Law Section.

Emory Ireland is a partner with Foley & Lardner LLP and a graduate of Yale College and Stanford Law School. He has been chairman of the State Bar of Wisconsin's committee on Standard Forms of Legal Opinions, chairman of its subcommittee on Revised Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code, chairman of its subcommittee on Revised Article 5 of the Uniform Commercial Code, and a member of the board of directors of its Business Law Section. He has also received the President's Award from the State Bar of Wisconsin. Mr. Ireland is a member of both the Wisconsin and Illinois bars.

O.K. Johnson, Jr. is a retired banker who currently maintains a solo law practice, concentrating on commercial and banking matters. He received his undergraduate degree from Lawrence University and his law degree from U.W. Law School. Mr. Johnson has been active in Wisconsin legislative matters, including passage of the Uniform Commercial Code, UCC Statewide Lien System Council, UCC Financing Statements, Wisconsin Consumer Act, Construction Lien Law, and Small Claims Act. In 1964, he founded the Wisconsin Bankers Association Lawyers Drafting Team, which developed forms and materials still in use today. Mr. Johnson donates his time to developing professional advisory teams for businesses, individuals, and families, while serving some of them in administrative roles. Mr. Johnson has also served as an expert witness in many banking cases.

Lisa R. Lange is a senior associate in the Madison office of Whyte Hirschboeck Dudek S.C., where her practice is concentrated in the areas of commercial and public finance, securities, and other corporate matters. Lisa represents borrowers, lenders, underwriters, issuers, buyers, and sellers in a variety of business transactions. She received a B.B.A. in finance in 1992 from the University of Wisconsin–Madison and a J.D., cum laude, Order of the Coif, in 1999 from the University of Wisconsin. Lisa has also authored Wisconsin Practice Series: Methods of Practice, Chapter 61 - Security Interests (West, 4th ed. 2004).

Paul J. Polaski is a member of Republic Associates of Wisconsin, Inc. of Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, a multi-line independent insurance agency. His principal concentration is in the area of business/commercial insurance and risk management. Mr. Polaski was formerly a member/partner of the Milwaukee law firm of Frenn, Jakus, Polaski, Schneider & Eichfeld. He obtained his B.S. in business administration from Marquette University College of Business Administration in 1973, and his J.D. from Marquette University Law School in 1976. Mr. Polaski served for several years on the board of directors of the National Kidney Foundation of Wisconsin, Inc., as legacy chairperson. He is the author of “A Liability Insurer’s Duty to Defend: When Does it Arise?”, published in the Federation of Insurance Council Quarterly (Winter 1977). He served for six years on the board of directors of the Professional Insurance Agents of Wisconsin, Inc. (PIA of Wisconsin) where he was elected to the offices of secretary, treasurer, vice-president and president. He is a member of the Independent Insurance Agents of Wisconsin/America (IAA), and the State Bar of Wisconsin and the American Bar Association.

Peter K. Rofes—a member of the Wisconsin and District of Columbia bars—is Professor of Law, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, and Director of Part-time Legal Education at Marquette University Law School. A graduate of Brandeis (B.A. summa cum laude), Harvard (A.M.), and Columbia (J.D.), Professor Rofes joined the Marquette faculty after serving as law clerk to Judge Max Rosenn of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and practicing with the Washington, D.C. office of Fried Frank Harris Shriver & Jacobson. He is retained frequently by law firms, other entities, and individuals to perform services across the professional spectrum in areas that include the law governing lawyers, judicial ethics and misconduct, state and federal constitutional law, appellate practice, media and client relations, and law office management. Since 1993, Dean Rofes has delivered more than 60 presentations to law firms, in-house counsel, and a host of other general and specialized organizations of lawyers in Wisconsin and throughout the nation on topics ranging from conflicts of interests, client identity, and confidentiality and privilege, to advertising and solicitation, appellate ethics, and the duty to report professional and judicial misconduct.

Sandy Swartzberg is a member of the Metro Milwaukee office of DeWitt, Ross & Stevens S.C. He focuses his law practice on closely held businesses and all issues related to family-owned enterprises. Mr. Swartzberg received his B.S. from UW-Whitewater, and his J.D. from UW-Madison. A former court commissioner for Milwaukee County, Mr. Swartzberg is a barrister in the American Inns of Court Leander Foley chapter, and a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin sections on family law and corporate law. Mr. Swartzberg serves as general counsel for a national trades association, and as a director for four for-profit businesses and three nonprofit businesses. Mr. Swartzberg is often sought as a speaker and lecturer on business and family law topics.