

About the Supplement Authors

Joseph W. Bukowski is an associate in the wealth planning practice at Michael Best & Friedrich LLP. He counsels clients on matters involving wills, trusts, estates, powers of attorney, and marital property agreements. Mr. Bukowski also assists clients with tax planning, business succession planning, charitable planning, and other related considerations. He received his undergraduate degree in political science, summa cum laude, from Marquette University in 2015, and his J.D., magna cum laude, from Marquette University Law School in 2018. Before joining Michael Best & Friedrich, Mr. Bukowski was an associate in the trusts and estates practice of a full-service Milwaukee law firm, where he previously worked as a summer associate and law clerk. While attending Marquette University Law School, Mr. Bukowski served as a legal intern with the Internal Revenue Service and the Wisconsin Elections Commission. Additionally, he provided more than 120 hours of pro bono work to community members. Mr. Bukowski also participated in an international conflict resolution trip to Israel. Mr. Bukowski is a member of the Milwaukee Bar Association, the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Eagle Scout Networking Committee, and the St. Thomas More Lawyers Society and is a commissioner on the Police and Fire Commission in South Milwaukee.

Margarita A. Castaneda is an associate at O’Neil, Cannon, Hollman, DeJong & Laing S.C., Milwaukee. She received her J.D., cum laude, from Marquette University Law School in 2019. While in law school, Ms. Castaneda served on the editorial board of the Marquette Law Review and facilitated first-year learning for students as a leader in Marquette’s Academic Success Program. She focuses her practice on estate planning, trust administration, and inheritance litigation.

Jennifer R. Imediegwu is an estate planning attorney with Moertl, Wilkins & Campbell, S.C., Milwaukee. She graduated from the Gerald F. Ford School of Public Policy at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan with a Bachelor of Arts in public policy and a policy focus in education. She obtained her J.D. from the University of Tennessee College of Law, in Knoxville. Ms. Imediegwu is a published author and a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and the Wisconsin Association of African-American Lawyers. She has served on the Greater Milwaukee Foundation Young Professional Advisory Council and is a Greater Milwaukee Foundation Herbert J. Mueller Society inductee. Ms. Imediegwu is on the board of directors for the Betty Brinn Children’s Museum.

Gina C. Ziegelbauer is an attorney in the Sheboygan- and Manitowoc-area firm of Steimle Birschbach, LLC. Ms. Ziegelbauer focuses her practice on estate planning, elder law, and post-death administration and probate. She received her B.A. from St. Norbert College and her J.D. from Marquette University Law School. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Sheboygan County Estate Planning Council.

