

About the Authors

---

Susan K. Allen formerly was a partner with Stafford Rosenbaum LLP, Madison, and now practices out of state. She received her J.D. from Marquette University Law School. She holds a B.A. in history and economics from Marquette University. Ms. Allen practices in the areas of products-liability and warranty litigation and municipal law.

Allen A. Arntsen retired as a partner in the Madison office of Foley & Lardner LLP, practicing in the areas of commercial, intellectual property, and real estate litigation. Mr. Arntsen is a former vice chair of the Madison Planning Commission and has chaired and been a member of several city of Madison task forces and commissions concerned with land use issues. He has taught and written on eminent domain and land use issues and has tried numerous real estate and eminent domain cases.

Melinda A. Bialzik is a shareholder with the Milwaukee law firm of Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C., focusing on business and commercial litigation and estate planning. She received her B.A. from Lawrence University in 1996 and her J.D. from Harvard in 1999. She is a member of the Thomas E. Fairchild Chapter of the American Inns of Court and of the National Association of Railroad Trial Counsel and formerly served on the board of the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association.

Keith A. Bruett is a partner in the Milwaukee office of Quarles & Brady LLP. He practices in the firm's litigation and dispute resolution practice group, with an emphasis on professional liability and insurance-related matters. Mr. Bruett graduated from the University of Minnesota, and he earned his law degree (summa cum laude) from Marquette University.

Robert C. Burrell is a shareholder with the Milwaukee law firm of Borgelt, Powell, Peterson & Frauen S.C. He received his B.A. from the University of Northern Iowa in 1968 and his J.D. from the University of Iowa in 1971. He is a member of the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel and Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin. Mr. Burrell is a Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter.

Jessica M. Butler is an attorney at Gruber Law Offices, LLC, Milwaukee. She received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2006 and a J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2009. Attorney Butler concentrates in personal-injury litigation. Before joining Gruber Law Offices, she practiced civil litigation and worker's compensation. She also is a past president of the Wisconsin Association of African-American Lawyers, a member of the State Bar's Professional Ethics Committee, a youth mentor for aspiring lawyers through the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association's Youth Summer Institute Program, and a member of the Milwaukee Bar Association's Courts Committee and is actively involved with her church.

Mackenzie E. Campbell is a partner at Doar Drill & Skow, S.C. and concentrates on civil litigation with an emphasis on personal-injury and real estate claims. Ms. Campbell graduated from the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities and earned her law degree (cum laude) from William Mitchell College of Law, now Mitchell Hamline School of Law.

James R. Clark is a commercial litigator with Foley & Lardner LLP, Milwaukee. He received his B.A. from Ripon College and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he served as editor in chief of the Wisconsin Law Review. He is a member of the American College of Trial Lawyers and the American Board of Trial Advocates and also serves as general counsel of the Foley firm.

Andrew J. Clarkowski is a partner in the Madison law firm of Axley Brynson, LLP. He received his B.A. (cum laude) from Carleton College and his M.A. and J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin, where he was senior managing editor of the Wisconsin Law Review. Mr. Clarkowski formerly served as law clerk to Chief Justice Roland B. Day of the Wisconsin Supreme Court and is a past president of the Western District of Wisconsin Bar Association.

Sherry D. Coley is an attorney in the Green Bay and Appleton offices of Davis & Kuelthau, s.c. She received her B.A. from Drake University and her J.D. from Marquette University. Ms. Coley focuses her practice primarily on intellectual property litigation, including patent, trademark, copyright, unfair competition, and trade secret disputes, as well as in complex business litigation, with an emphasis on contract disputes, business torts, financial services litigation, real estate foreclosures and workouts, and tax assessment appeals.

Matthew J. Cornetta is an attorney at Ruder Ware, L.L.S.C. in Eau Claire. He focuses his practice on civil litigation, concentrating in general business litigation, construction litigation, and litigation arising out of contract and real estate disputes. He is also licensed to practice in Minnesota.

Kyle W. Engelke is a partner with the Madison law firm of Stafford Rosenbaum LLP. He received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Wisconsin in 2008 and 2013, respectively. Mr. Engelke is a trial lawyer whose practice includes litigating commercial matters involving shareholder disputes and claims of tortious interference and misappropriation of trade secrets. Mr. Engelke is a member of the James E. Doyle American Inns of Court, an appointee to the State Bar of Wisconsin Bench and Bar Committee, and the president-elect of the Dane County Bar Association.

Brandon J. Evans is a shareholder with the law firm of Kendricks, Bordeau, Keefe, Seavoy & Larsen, P.C., Marquette, Michigan. He received his undergraduate degree (summa cum laude) from Northern Michigan University and his J.D. from the George Mason University School of Law, where he was a founding member and an articles editor of the Journal of Law, Economics & Policy. Mr. Evans has a general practice with emphasis in real estate, mining, title examination, and civil litigation. He is a past chair of the Litigation Section of the State Bar of Michigan and of the editorial board of Wisconsin Lawyer and has served on the State Bar of Wisconsin's Board of Governors, Executive Committee, and Young Lawyers Division board (president 2016–17). Mr. Evans also was president of the Brown County Young Lawyers Association (2010–11) when he lived in Green Bay. Mr. Evans is licensed to practice in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Isabelle L. Faust is an associate attorney in the Milwaukee office of SmithAmundsen LLC. She received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2012 and her J.D. (cum laude) from Marquette University Law School in 2018. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Ms. Faust concentrates her practice in professional liability and personal-injury defense litigation.

Stephanie L. Finn is a shareholder in the Eau Claire law firm of Herrick & Hart, S.C. She received her B.A. (magna cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire in 1988 and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1991. She has a general practice with an emphasis on complex legal analysis and appellate law.

Stephen L. Fox is a shareholder with the Brookfield law firm of Schmidt, Rupke, Tess-Mattner & Fox, S.C. He received his B.B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1989 and his J.D. from Marquette University Law School in 1992. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Bar Association.

Robert L. Gegios is a shareholder with the Milwaukee law firm of Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C., and concentrates his practice in business, commercial, and complex litigation, alternative dispute resolution, and client counseling in national and international settings. He is a former president of the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association and of the Thomas E. Fairchild Chapter of the American Inns of Court and a Wisconsin chair of the Fellows of the American Bar Foundation. Mr. Gegios has held numerous leadership positions within the American Bar Association and other professional organizations. He has authored and spoken extensively across the United States and internationally on a wide range of substantive and procedural issues, including federal and Wisconsin civil practice rules, electronic discovery, damages, force majeure and related contract and equitable doctrines, antitrust and trade regulation, securities, RICO, international law and arbitration, and cross-cultural skills.

Kurt A. Goehre is a partner at the law firm of Conway, Olejniczak & Jerry, S.C., Green Bay. He received his B.B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin.

Thomas Gonzalez is a partner in the Milwaukee office of Scopelitis, Garvin, Light, Hanson & Feary PC. His practice focuses on transportation law and commercial litigation. He received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin, where he was a member and editor of the Wisconsin Law Review.

Webster A. Hart is a shareholder in the Eau Claire law firm of Herrick & Hart, S.C. He received his B.S. from the University of Wisconsin-Stout and his J.D. (cum laude) from the William Mitchell College of Law. His area of concentration is civil trials, and he is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers.

John W. Hein is of counsel in the law firm of Davis|Kuelthau s.c., Milwaukee. His practice focuses on litigation, business consultation, real estate, and estate and financial planning. Mr. Hein's experience in the prosecution and defense of professional liabilities claims, shareholder, partnership, trust, and estate dispute resolution, intellectual property claims, real estate transactions, and general trade and commercial matters has assisted corporate and individual clients for more than 40 years. Following graduation from law school, Mr. Hein served a one-year clerkship with Wisconsin Supreme Court Chief Justice E. Harold Hallows. He served for two terms on the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors and has presented programs for the State Bar of Wisconsin and other legal associations on topics including discovery, professional malpractice, professional responsibility, securities law, securities aspects of real estate transactions, and minority shareholder squeeze-outs.

Rebecca M. Hillary formerly was with Kasieta Legal Group, focusing on civil litigation. Before joining Kasieta Legal Group, she worked several years in Wausau, defending insurance companies and their clients. This experience provided Ms. Hillary with valuable insight into presenting the strongest case possible for clients who face insurance companies. Ms. Hillary obtained her law degree (cum laude) from Marquette University Law School and her undergraduate degree (with honors) from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Ann S. Jacobs is the founder of Jacobs Injury Law, S.C., Milwaukee. She received her B.A. with distinction in 1989 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1992 (cum laude). She began her legal career as a public defender before changing her emphasis to personal-injury litigation. Her practice includes personal injuries, medical malpractice, and nursing home abuse and neglect on behalf of injured persons. She is a frequent speaker on the topics of litigation, subrogation, and ethics. She is a past president of the Wisconsin Association for Justice, a founding member of their Women's Caucus, and a board member for the Wisconsin Equal Justice Fund. She is a coauthor of chapters in the State Bar of Wisconsin books The Law of Damages in Wisconsin and Advising Older Clients and Their Families. She currently is chair of the Wisconsin Elections Commission.

Victoria M. Karcher is an associate at Klinner Kramer Shull LLP, Wausau. She received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2007 and her J.D. (magna cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin in 2011. She has an insurance defense litigation practice with an emphasis on negligence and other tort-based claims.

Robert J. Kasieta is a 1983 graduate of Marquette Law School. He clerked for the Dane County Chief Judge in 1984. In August 1997, he founded Kasieta Legal Group, LLC, Madison, focusing on personal-injury, insurance, corporate litigation, and employment law. Mr. Kasieta is a Certified Civil Pretrial and Trial Specialist by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. He has taught dozens of continuing legal education courses and also teaches at the University of Wisconsin Law School.

Paul A. Kinne is a partner at Gingras, Thomsen & Wachs, Madison. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin, graduating from law school in 1993. His practice includes employment law, civil rights, professional malpractice, personal injury, products liability, and lender liability.

Nicholas W. Kitzman is an associate with the Milwaukee office of Foley & Lardner LLP, where he is a member of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group. His practice includes representing clients in a wide variety of real estate matters, including the purchase, sale, development, leasing, and financing of commercial real property. He received his B.S. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. from Duke University School of Law, where he served on the editorial board of the Duke Law Journal.

Matthew D. Lee is a partner in the Madison office of Foley & Lardner LLP. He received his B.A. (magna cum laude) in 2002 from the University of Notre Dame and his J.D. (magna cum laude) in 2006 from the University of Alabama. Mr. Lee practices in the areas of bankruptcy, restructuring, and real estate and business litigation. He has worked on a number of real estate and eminent domain cases in both state and federal court.

Eric W. Lengell is an attorney with Zilske Law Firm S.C. He assists employers, insurance carriers, and third-party administrators with all phases of worker's compensation, from initial claim handling through formal hearings and appeals. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Marquette University Law School, where he served on the Marquette Law Review.

Riley C. Leonard is an attorney at Gingras, Thomsen & Wachs, Madison. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Alaska Southeast and his J.D. (magna cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School. His practice focuses on plaintiff's side civil litigation. Attorney Leonard handles cases involving wrongful death, medical malpractice, personal injury, employment law, and civil rights. He serves on the board of the State Bar of Wisconsin Young Lawyers Division and has published articles in the Wisconsin International Law Journal and various other publications. Attorney Leonard is an avid traveler, cook, and sports enthusiast.

Kristen E. Lonergan is a partner at Crooks, Low & Connell, S.C. in Wausau, where she practices primarily personal-injury law and family law. She received her law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2010. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2007.

Thomas J. Lonzo is a partner with the law firm of Rose & deJong, S.C. in Milwaukee. He received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1989 and also attended law school at Creighton University, where he was a member of the Creighton Law Review. His practice has included representation of ship owners, charterers, insurers, seamen, longshoremen, and others on a variety of admiralty issues in both federal and state courts.

Patrick J. Lubenow is a shareholder in and the managing partner of the Milwaukee office of the Chicago law firm SmithAmundsen LLC. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1981 and his J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1984. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Illinois State Bar Association. Mr. Lubenow concentrates his practice in professional liability defense and personal-injury defense litigation.

Theodore V. Lyons, Jr., is a shareholder in the Janesville law firm of Meier, Wickhem, Lyons, & Schulz, S.C. He received his B.A. from Grove City College and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1978.

J. Ryan Maloney is an attorney with von Briesen & Roper, s.c., Milwaukee. He received his B.A. (cum laude) from Marquette University and his J.D. from Marquette University Law School. Mr. Maloney served as the law clerk to the late Judge John L. Coffey of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Mr. Maloney's practice includes products liability, premises liability and safe place, personal injury, insurance coverage, business and commercial, and professional liability matters and appellate representation.

Jeffrey A. Mandell is a partner at Stafford Rosenbaum LLP, Madison, where his practice focuses on litigation and appeals. He is co-chair of the firm's Appellate Practice Group and serves on the editorial board of the American Bar Association's Appellate Practice Journal. He received his J.D. with high honors in 2006 from the University of Chicago Law School, after which he served as a law clerk to the Honorable A. Raymond Randolph on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. He is admitted to practice in Wisconsin, Illinois, and Washington, D.C.

Melita M. Mullen is an associate at Bell, Moore & Richter, S.C., Madison, where she practices in civil litigation, civil rights defense, insurance defense, and worker's compensation. She received her B.A. degree (with honors) from Vassar College and her J.D. degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Ms. Mullen also holds an M.Phil. degree from Trinity College, Dublin, and an M.A. from the Wisconsin School of Business at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, Dane County Bar Association, Wisconsin Defense Counsel, and James E. Doyle Inns of Court. She is admitted to practice in Wisconsin and before the U.S. District Court for the Western Districts of Wisconsin. Ms. Mullen is a contributing author to the State Bar of Wisconsin publications Anderson on Wisconsin Insurance Law and The Law of Damages in Wisconsin.

James T. Murray, Jr., is a shareholder with the firm of von Briesen & Roper, s.c., Milwaukee. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin and his J.D. (cum laude) from Marquette University, where he was a member of the Marquette Law Review. Before practicing law, he served as a law clerk to the late Chief Justice Bruce F. Beilfuss of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Mr. Murray is a past president of the Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin, a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates, and a notary public in good standing with the state of Wisconsin. Mr. Murray has tried more than 150 cases to verdict, including medical drug and device, commercial fraud, products liability, and insurance bad-faith cases. He lectures regularly on these and related topics.

Patrick S. Nolan is a partner with the Milwaukee office of Quarles & Brady, LLP, focusing on products-liability, personal-injury, and insurance-coverage litigation. He attended the London School of Economics and Political Science (1991–92), received his B.S. from Boston College in 1993, and received his J.D. in 1997 from Marquette University Law School, where he served as managing editor of the Marquette Law Review. Mr. Nolan is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Defense Research Institute, Wisconsin Defense Counsel, and the Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association.

Jacqueline C. Nuckels is an attorney with Jacobs Injury Law, Milwaukee. Her practice is devoted exclusively to the representation of individuals who have been seriously injured in automobile collisions, truck accidents, or premises accidents or as a result of nursing home abuse or neglect. Ms. Nuckels is a 2004 graduate of Marquette University Law School. In addition to her practice of law, Ms. Nuckels is actively involved in the community. She serves as a volunteer attorney with the Marquette Volunteer Legal Clinic and also serves on the board of a Christian daycare center. She is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Association for Justice, and the American Association for Justice.

Daniel A. Peterson is an attorney in Milwaukee focusing on civil litigation. Mr. Peterson is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Minnesota State Bar Association. He received B.A. degrees in geology and environmental studies from Macalester College, an M.S. in geoscience from Pennsylvania State University, and his J.D. from the University of Minnesota.

David J. Pliner is a shareholder in the Madison firm of Corneille Law Group, LLC. Mr. Pliner obtained his B.A. (magna cum laude) from the University of Minnesota in 1986 and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1989. He is a member of the Defense Research Institute, and he focuses his practice on motion and appellate work.

Terrence M. Polich is a partner at Lawton & Cates, S.C., Madison, concentrating in personal injury, professional negligence, and warranty litigation. Mr. Polich received his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School and his bachelor's degree from Carroll College.

Elizabeth D. Reeths is an attorney with the Wausau law firm of Klinner Kramer Shull LLP. She received a B.A. from the University of Michigan in 2008 and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 2011. Ms. Reeths is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin Member Services Committee and a past chair of the CLE Committee. She was the chair of the Young Lawyers Division of the Marathon County Bar Association from 2012 to 2015 and currently volunteers as a mock trial coach for D.C. Everest High School. Ms. Reeths is licensed to practice in the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin and in the state of Michigan.

David G. Ress is a shareholder at Bell, Moore & Richter, S.C., Madison, where he practices in civil litigation, insurance defense, business litigation, civil appeals, and worker's compensation. He received his B.A. degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. degree (cum laude) from Marquette University. Mr. Ress is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Dane County Bar Association and a board member of the Wisconsin Defense Counsel. He is admitted to practice in Wisconsin and before the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin. Mr. Ress is a contributing author to the State Bar of Wisconsin's Anderson on Wisconsin Insurance Law, Wisconsin Governmental Claims and Immunities Handbook, and The Law of Damages in Wisconsin. He lives in the Madison area with his wife and three daughters.

Andrea H. Roschke is a shareholder in the Milwaukee office of von Briesen & Roper, s.c., in the municipal law, real estate, and condemnation law sections. She received her B.A. (magna cum laude) from Mount Holyoke College in 1978 and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1982. Her practice is concentrated in local government law.

Katherine D. Spitz currently serves as associate counsel at the Wisconsin Institute for Law and Liberty. Her past experience includes work as an assistant attorney general for the Wisconsin Department of Justice and as a litigator with Foley & Lardner LLP. Ms. Spitz is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and Notre Dame Law School.

Gary S. Stanislawski is a shareholder with the Zilske Law Firm, S.C., Brookfield. He received his B.A., in 1994, and his J.D., in 1997, from Marquette University. His practice concentrates on defending worker's compensation claims and advising clients on related issues. He is a member of the Defense Research Institute.

Jonathan T. Swain is a senior attorney with Lindner & Marsack, S.C., a Milwaukee law firm concentrating its practice in management labor and employment law. Mr. Swain received his B.A. from Carroll College and his J.D. from Marquette University. Mr. Swain has served as chairperson of the Labor and Employment Law Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin, as well as chairperson of the State Labor-Management Cooperation Council. He was a permanent member of Governor Thompson's Judicial Selection Council (1987–2001). Mr. Swain practices primarily in the areas of employment law, collective bargaining, and arbitration.

Kent A. Tess-Mattner is a shareholder with the Brookfield law firm of Schmidt, Rupke, Tess-Mattner & Fox, S.C. He received his B.A. (cum laude) from Carroll College and his J.D. from Marquette University. Before entering private practice, he was law clerk to Chief Judge John A. Decker of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. He has co-chaired the Civil Litigation Section of the Milwaukee Bar Association and is a past president of both the Society of Family Lawyers and the Leander J. Foley Matrimonial Inns of Court. He is a member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of Wisconsin (Appellate Practice Section, Litigation Section, Family Law Section), American Association for Justice, Wisconsin Association for Justice (Jury Instruction Committee), Society of Family Lawyers, Leander J. Foley Matrimonial Inns of Court, Collaborative Family Law Council of Wisconsin, Divorce Cooperation Institute, Waukesha Bar Association, and Milwaukee Bar Association. He is a Fellow of the Wisconsin Bar Foundation.

Scott B. Thompson is a litigation associate at Gingras, Thomsen & Wachs, Madison. He received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2015 and his B.S. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2010. His primary practice areas are professional malpractice, class and collective actions, civil rights, and personal injury. Before entry into the legal field, Mr. Thompson worked in the environmental nonprofit community.

David J. Turek is a partner at Gass Weber Mullins LLC and concentrates on complex civil litigation and insurance coverage disputes. Mr. Turek graduated from Carthage College and earned his law degree (summa cum laude) from Marquette University. He is a Fellow in the Litigation Counsel of America and frequently speaks to other lawyers about trial practice, damages, and insurance coverage issues.

Susan R. Tyndall is a shareholder at Habush, Habush & Rottier, S.C., Waukesha. She received her B.A. from the University of Illinois and her J.D. (cum laude) from Marquette University Law School. She practices principally in the area of civil litigation, with an emphasis on appellate litigation and insurance coverage. Ms. Tyndall has served on the board of the State Bar of Wisconsin Appellate Practice Section, also serving as program chair and chair of the section. She was the founding editor of the former Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin's Wisconsin Civil Trial Journal and served as its editor from its inception until 2006. Ms. Tyndall authors a chapter on judgments in the State Bar of Wisconsin book Wisconsin Trial Practice and a chapter on legal malpractice in The Law of Damages in Wisconsin. Ms. Tyndall is a frequent speaker and author on tort and insurance topics.

Russell M. Ware was a shareholder with SmithAmundsen LLC in Milwaukee before retiring from the active practice of law. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his J.D. from Marquette University. He served as a law clerk to Chief Justice E. Harold Hallows of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. He was a trial lawyer for 40 years, concentrating on professional liability and personal-injury matters, and has tried well over 100 civil jury trials to conclusion. He now serves as a mediator and arbitrator in civil cases. He has authored more than 35 articles on professional liability, trial practice, and dispute resolution in national and statewide publications, and is a frequent speaker at continuing legal education seminars throughout the state of Wisconsin. He is a former president of the Wisconsin Defense Counsel (formerly Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin) and is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates.

Tiffany E. Woelfel is an attorney in the Green Bay and Appleton offices of Davis & Kuelthau, s.c. She received her B.S. from the University of Minnesota and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin. After law school, Ms. Woelfel was a judicial law clerk for the Honorable William C. Griesbach, then-Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, and for the Honorable Joe B. McDade, senior judge in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of Illinois. She concentrates her practice on civil litigation, with an emphasis on federal civil litigation.

Samantha J. Wood is an attorney with Lindner & Marsack, S.C., a Milwaukee law firm concentrating its practice in labor and employment law. She received her J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Ms. Wood represents management in all aspects of labor and employment law, including wage and hour, employment discrimination defense, unemployment insurance, immigration, family and medical leave, restrictive covenant agreements, collective bargaining, and labor arbitration.

Past Authors

Neifor B. Acosta	Thomas K. Mullins
Timothy J. Aiken	David W. Neeb
Thomas D. Bell	Barbara A. Neider
Terry J. Booth	Tara L. Nielsen
Kelly L. Centofanti	Kathy L. Nusslock
Alan Clack	Teresa E. O'Halloran
Gregory B. Conway	F. Thomas Olson
Barrett Corneille	Winston Ostrow
Claude J. Covelli	Randy S. Parlee
M. Christine Cowles	Jamae Pennings
Joseph P. Danas, Jr.	Mark A. Peterson
Paul E. David	Donald H. Piper
Patrick O. Dunphy	Lyman A. Precourt
Timothy D. Edwards	Sara H. Quirt
David N. Farwell	Jacob R. Reis
Carl D. Fortner	George A. Richards
Anderson M. Gansner	Ward I. Richter
James E. Garvey	Daniel A. Riedl
J. Ric Gass	Catherine M. Rottier
Chad R. Gendreau	Brian H. Sande
Melissa L. Greipp	Anne E. Schmiede
Charles D. Hoornstra	Steven J. Schooler
Sarah F. Kaas	Paul W. Schwarzenbart
Margaret V. Kaiser	Frederick J. Smith
Walter F. Kelley	Marie A. Stanton
Mark M. Leitner	Jay R. Starrett
Benjamin D. Levin	Harney B. Stover, Jr.
Kevin Lonergan	Steven M. Streck
Marcia A. MacKenzie	Robert D. Sundby
Thomas W. Mackenzie	Benjamin P. Sykes
Alan Marcuvitz	Michael I. Tarnoff
Steven P. Means	Stephen D.R. Taylor
Michael Mesirov	Louis J. Thorson

Mary C. Turke

Eric J. Van Vugt

John Walsh

Nick Welle

Paul C. Werkowski

R. Mark Williamson

John M. Yackel

Patrick M. Zabrowski

Alyson K. Zierdt

Robert H. Zilske