Find an infusion of insight

Knowing what's coming next can give you an edge in your practice. Smart attorneys look to Trending Topics in Business Litigation to stay ahead of evolving issues and hot-button subjects. Prestigious presenters will guide you through the latest developments in:

- Insurer's duty to defend
- Business judgment rule
- Procedural litigation issues
- State and federal RICO statutes
- Ethical conflicts

Navigate new rules

In the world of litigation rules, the only constant is change. Explore the effect Wisconsin's new Rules of Civil Procedure will have on business litigation with a look at:

- Limits on interrogatories and depositions
- Five-year limit on discovery
- Proportionality as the basis of discovery
- And more

Wisconsin also recently adopted significant changes to its class action statute. Examine Wisconsin's new law as well as nationwide trends in merger and acquisition class actions.

Calculated communication

Whether speaking to the public or corresponding with other lawyers, communication in business litigation requires careful thought.

When communicating with in-house counsel, see how attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine come into play. Should you comment publicly about a pending case? Learn when and how speaking to the public is appropriate.

Course materials for those attending the seminar

Course materials are provided to seminar attendees in PDF format and are downloadable from myStateBar on wisbar.org up to four days prior to and 90 days after your seminar. The PDF format is ideal for creating an electronic library that is easily stored, searched, and shared. PDFs allow you to search multiple files at once, copy and paste desired paragraphs, or send the entire PDF to a colleague without leaving your desk.

Use Adobe Reader, GoodReader for iPad, or another free downloadable program to access the files from your computer, tablet, or mobile device during the seminar to make notes electronically, or print relevant sections ahead of time.

For live seminar attendees who prefer to receive course materials in printed format, please select the tuition option that includes printed materials for an additional $20. You will also have access to the PDFs to get the benefit of both options.
