Let's get together

Explore worker's compensation injuries from the doctors who treat them. Hear considerations for injuries common in worker's comp claims presented by experienced attorneys. Then, get perspective from an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) on how certain injuries and expert medical testimony are considered in hearings.

Advance your medical knowledge

Doctors from differing specialties discuss several common work-related conditions and injuries, including:

- Cervical spine injuries
- Traumatic brain injuries
- Environmental and occupational lung disease
- Hip injuries requiring replacement

Learn how to assess these injuries and their treatments for proper recovery times, work restrictions, and applicable full or partial disability.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to hear from doctors, lawyers, and an ALJ.

Register now!
