Car Crash Symposium 2020

This program is endorsed by the Litigation Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Highly wreck-o-mmended

With assistance from Car Crash Symposium 2020, you'll be able to drive off the lot with brand new perspectives that will help you in your daily practice. A doctor, mediator, judge, and several experienced attorneys will make sure you're ready to navigate a variety of issues related to car crash cases, including:

- Traumatic brain injuries, post-traumatic stress disorder, and psychological issues
- Discovery rules for expert witnesses in auto cases
- The strict procedural rules for lawsuits involving government vehicles
- Medicare set asides
- Medical billing

Who should attend:

- Personal injury lawyers
- Torts attorneys
- Insurance defense lawyers
- Civil litigators
- General practitioners

How you'll benefit:

- Examine crash-related psychological issues with the help of a Wisconsin physician
- Learn how governmental immunity affects crashes involving government vehicles
- Ensure your clients are compliant with Section 111 mandatory Medicare reporting
- Apply the Rules of Evidence to your next case involving electronically stored information
