Advanced Crimmigration Topics for Immigration & Defense Lawyers

A legal labyrinth

America's immigration laws are notoriously complicated and are considered by many to be second only to the Internal Revenue Code in their statutory complexity. Noncitizens facing criminal charges are in a particularly difficult position. They have the daunting task of navigating the American immigration court system and U.S. District Court proceedings, knowing that they face high-stakes outcomes like detention or deportation.

Advanced Crimmigration Topics for Immigration & Defense Lawyers will cover what you need to know to confidently represent noncitizen defendants. You'll learn the grounds for inadmissibility vs. deportability and when to apply various approaches in your defense. Presenters will also shine a spotlight on ICE detention in Wisconsin, and you'll hear firsthand from a man who spent 7 weeks in detention at a Dodge County ICE facility.

Who should attend:

- Immigration lawyers
- Criminal defense attorneys

How you'll benefit:

- Learn how custody determinations are made after an individual is apprehended by ICE
- Understand how to apply the categorical approach to Wisconsin criminal statutes
- Assess the available options for protecting noncitizen clients charged with a criminal offense
- Gain insight and perspective from a man who was recently detained by ICE in Wisconsin

Register now!
