An Introduction to Immigration Law

Start with the basics

Have you been considering adding immigration law to your practice? An Introduction to Immigration Law is a good first step. Experienced presenters will acquaint you with a wide range of topics, including:

- Immigration terminology and key concepts
- The rapidly changing regulatory environment and agencies involved
- Differences between visa types
- Removal defense

They'll also share recommendations for furthering your own experience while upholding your ethical duties to your clients. Get a taste for the intricacies involved with this practice area and determine whether you're prepared to add immigration law to your practice with An Introduction to Immigration Law.

Who should attend:

- Lawyers looking to add immigration to their practice
- Immigration lawyers seeking a refresher

How you'll benefit:

- Get an overview of the basics of immigration law
- Review the different types of immigrant and non-immigrant visas
- Avoid malpractice claims by understanding the risks of "dabbling" in immigration law
- Find out how to educate yourself sufficiently to confidently add immigration to your practice
