Public Records, Open Meetings Update 2020

This program is co-produced with the Government Lawyers Division of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Your mission, should you choose to accept it

Does complying with PROM laws and balancing the need for transparency with expanded privacy rights in the midst of a global pandemic make you feel like you're auditioning for the next Mission Impossible movie?

Then cruise on over to the Public Records, Open Meetings Update 2020. It'll get you up-to-speed on recent developments, as well as take an in-depth look at timely issues affecting records disclosure and retention, open meetings, and more. From a review of Wisconsin's new legislation regulating the use of law enforcement body and dash cameras to discussions on how COVID-19 has affected the public's access to information, you'll come away with loads of new insights.

Who should attend:

- Government lawyers
- Municipal attorneys
- Administrative & local government lawyers
- Civil rights lawyers
- Criminal lawyers
- Media law practitioners

How you'll benefit:

- Find out how COVID-19 has impacted Open Meetings and Public Records Laws
- Examine how the balancing test is applied to requests for police body camera footage
- Explore the impacts of Marsy's Law on records requests
- Receive an update on developments involving Public Records Law and Open Meetings Law

Be better prepared for your next mission involving public records or open meetings, and register today!
