Legal Ethics 2020

Current Issues in Professional Responsibility in a “New Normal” Practice

Looking ahead

In many ways, the events of 2020 have forced change upon the legal profession, but they've also caused attorneys to take a step back and contemplate whether there are better ways to do things – or more importantly, better ways to serve clients.

Legal Ethics 2020: Current Issues in Professional Responsibility in a “New Normal” Practice will discuss the unique ethical issues popping up as the law embraces remote workplaces against the backdrop of a global pandemic. You'll also explore ways to deal with common stumbling blocks like communication and conflicts of interest that are still as present as ever.

How you'll benefit:

- Mitigate security risks when working remotely
- Receive tips for practicing law in a virtual world
- Understand how ethics rules apply to personal conduct
- Uphold your professional duties during times of change in the legal profession

Who should attend:

- All lawyers
- Paralegals
- Legal assistants
