Just in Case: A Family Case Law & Legislative Update

Co-produced with the Wisconsin Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers

Take it easy

Even routine things like going to the dentist or making a trip to the grocery store became more complicated in 2020. Just in Case: A Family Case Law and Legislative Update will help make one thing in your life easier: earning CLE and getting up-to-speed on the latest issues affecting family law practice.

We've compiled no less than a dozen significant cases from the past year and are bringing them to you in one quick-hitting update. Plus, get the ethics credit you're lacking by reviewing the ethical implications in Miller v. Carroll, as well as recent ethical dilemmas attracting attention.

How you'll benefit:

- Receive a substantive case law update
- Get the information you need to stay up-to-date in your practice
- Cite unpublished (but citable) cases with confidence
- Understand what 2019 Wisconsin Act 95 means for establishing paternity
- Know how to handle ethical situations common to family law practice

Who should attend:

- Family law attorneys
- General practitioners

Register now!

10:00 AM Break

10:15 AM Ethical Issues in Family Law Practice

- What is the difference between ethical obligation and legal malpractice in a divorce setting?
- Can I continue to be Facebook friends with a colleague that has just become a judge or court commissioner?
- Should I close my LinkedIn account to avoid appearances of conflict of interest with other attorneys or other members of the community?
- Can I still take guardian ad litem appointments if I had domestic violence training in the past, but not since the new Supreme Court rule?
- When representing someone in a divorce do I have to follow through with drafting a QDRO or can I leave that up to the client?
- How much do I personally need to know about both parties' finances to effectively advise on a prenuptial agreement?
