Public Records, Open Meetings Update 2021

Co-produced with the Government Lawyers Division of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Ups and downs

The Public Records, Open Meetings Update 2021 is a half-day, quick-hitting program that covers the latest hot topics affecting the careful balance between transparency and privacy. You'll discuss the latest legal developments around open meetings, records disclosure, and records retention, including pandemic-spurred changes that will likely stick around post-COVID and the transition back to in-person trials. Plus, judges, attorneys, media personnel, and a city clerk will share their valuable insights as things start to get back on track.

How you'll benefit:

- Be up-to-date on the most recent changes and latest case law updates
- Know what to expect with the return of in-person trials
- Learn how to approach elected officials who aren't adhering to transparency laws
- Identify the COVID-19 impacts here to stay

Who should attend:

- Government lawyers
- Municipal attorneys
- Administrative & local government lawyers
- Civil rights lawyers
- Criminal lawyers
- Media law practitioners
