44th Annual Torts Update

Review the ramifications

For short info-packed segments on recent case law within tort litigation, the 44th Annual Torts Update should be your #1 go-to. From product liability MDLs to insurance policy exclusions, you'll be brought up to speed on developments affecting a variety of topics.

Plus, you'll explore when and under what circumstances you can expect to appear remotely post-pandemic and review what ethics rules have to say about civility in law practice.

How you'll benefit:

- Learn the most important precedents in tort litigation from the past year
- Discuss immunities for property owners in trespassing cases
- Assess obligations that insurance companies must meet as part of their duty to defend
- Explore the future of remote hearings
- Unpack the proliferation of multidistrict product liability litigation
- Understand your ethical obligation to maintain civility

Who should attend:

- Torts & personal injury attorneys
- Insurance lawyers
- Civil litigators
- General practitioners
