45th Annual Worker's Compensation Update

Stay on top of the latest developments

From a behind-the-scenes look at how the Labor and Industry Review Commission works to a panel examining real-life ethics situations, the 45th Annual Worker's Compensation Update offers crucial insight and guidance for worker's compensation practitioners.

You'll review important precedent from the past year, get updates from state officials, and learn tips and techniques from experienced colleagues. Plus, you'll explore what worker's compensation practice will look like in the future and receive tips for effective remote advocacy.

How you'll benefit:

- Get a special look at how the Labor and Industry Review Commission works
- Discover what's new at the Office of Worker's Compensation Hearings
- Hear from panelists about ethical concerns common to worker's comp practice
- Learn how to present your case more effectively over video
- Obtain guidance for practicing worker's compensation post-pandemic
- Receive a case law and legislative update

Who should attend:

- Worker's compensation lawyers
- Employment law attorneys
- Insurance attorneys
- General practitioners
