Annual Constitutional Law Symposium 2021

Endorsed by the Civil Rights & Liberties Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Decisions, decisions

Responses to a tumultuous election and a global pandemic have led to multiple legal challenges citing rights set forth in the U.S. Constitution. Highly charged issues from free speech and religious freedom to mandatory vaccination and voting rights are making their way through the docket.

Dive into the details of these timely cases at the Annual Constitutional Law Symposium to see how the U.S. Supreme Court is deciding what could be some of the most defining issues of our time.

How you'll benefit:

- Understand the impact of a recent U.S. Supreme Court decision on student speech
- Review recent First Amendment opinions on protest speech and religion
- Find out whether there are limits on governmental power to mandate vaccination
- Explore the current state of election law and voting rights

Who should attend:

- Individual rights & liberties attorneys
- Appellate lawyers
- School attorneys
- Government lawyers
- Administrative law practitioners
- Public interest attorneys
- Criminal lawyers
