Legal Research Tools and Techniques

Get better results

No one wants to spend hours doing legal research just to come up empty handed. At Legal Research Tools and Techniques, you'll find out how to conduct more fruitful internet searches by becoming more familiar with the free or inexpensive tools you already have at your disposal. You'll also receive guidance on staying within the bounds of your ethical responsibilities when conducting research.

You'll learn how to: use advanced templates to conduct Google searches; locate case law and scholarly articles with Google Scholar; organize your research using folders on Lexis or Westlaw; and find the best Wisconsin legislative resources. Whether you're a new attorney, an experienced practitioner, or a paralegal, everyone in the legal profession can benefit from this opportunity to develop more savvy investigative skills.

How you'll benefit:

- Learn how to research more strategically online
- Save time and money by taking full advantage of your resources
- Discover apps and tools to help organize your research
- Conduct your legal research ethically

Who should attend:

- All lawyers
- Paralegals

Increase your efficiency, accuracy, and productivity by becoming a legal research rock star. Register now!
