Legal Issues of the Aging 2022

Co-produced with the Elder Law and Special Needs Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin

A beneficial update

With the changing demographics of our population, it's more important now than ever for attorneys working with older adults and special needs clients to be culturally competent. Legal Issues of the Aging 2022 will give you practical guidance on working with members of different ethnicities and religious faiths so you can effectively represent all of your clients.

In addition to updates on case law and legislation, you'll learn ethical ways to "just say no" to clients and potential clients. Plus, you'll discuss what to expect for older and disabled clients who may face benefits challenges once the Public Health Emergency declaration expires.

How you'll benefit:

- Understand why cultural competence is key to effective representation
- Know what to expect from the new guardianship training requirement
- Find out how the anticipated end of the Public Health Emergency may impact clients
- Learn how to decline a client or end representation without running afoul of ethical rules
- Receive your annual case law and legislative updates

Who should attend:

- Elder law attorneys
- Guardians ad litem for adults
- Estate planning and probate lawyers

Stay up-to-date on the best ways to assist older and disabled clients with the guidance you've come to expect from Legal Issues of the Aging 2022.
