Advanced Skills and Techniques for Family Law Practice 2022

Co-produced with the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Defuse family feuds

When a marriage on the rocks is further complicated by aggravating factors like the pandemic or substance abuse, clients need counsel with experience handling highly contentious family law matters. Advanced Skills and Techniques for Family Law Practice will give you the sound guidance you need to rise to the challenge.

Learn how substance use evaluations are conducted, get strategies for questioning expert witnesses, and know how to handle disputes between parents about COVID vaccinations for kids. You'll also discover ways to protect your personal safety while handling high-conflict cases.

How you'll benefit:

- Understand how AODA evaluations are used in family cases
- Get helpful advice for clients participating in family custody studies
- Discover best practices and new ideas for cross-examining expert witnesses
- Examine the far-reaching impacts of COVID on family law
- Receive recommendations on security measures for attorneys

Who should attend:

- Family law practitioners
- Civil litigators
- Guardianship attorneys
- General practitioners

You'll receive practical tips for successfully resolving even the most challenging family law cases at Advanced Skills and Techniques for Family Law Practice 2022.
