Protecting Victims of Abuse Using Restraining Orders

In safe hands

Lawyers and guardians ad litem working with those impacted by domestic abuse need to have a full understanding of the legal remedies available to victims. Gain a better understanding of what constitutes abuse and examine two types of restraining orders that may offer relief to victims at Protecting Victims of Abuse Using Restraining Orders.

You'll find out how and when to use a restraining order and pick up best practices to use in court. Additionally, you'll be able to anticipate how the dynamics of abuse might affect your case and know how to prepare your client for a court appearance.

How you'll benefit:

- Understand the many types of behaviors that can amount to domestic abuse
- Become familiar with the process for filing a restraining order
- Distinguish between restraining orders for domestic abuse and harassment
- Learn what to expect at an injunction hearing from a court commissioner
- Receive practical strategies for presenting a case using real scenarios

Who should attend:

- Family law practitioners
- Criminal law attorneys
- Guardianship attorneys
- Domestic violence advocates
- Public defenders
- General practitioners

Learn more about domestic abuse and find ways to help victims at Protecting Victims of Abuse Using Restraining Orders.
