Annual Constitutional Law Symposium 2022

Decisions, decisions

In the past year, the U.S. Supreme Court has issued opinions on high-profile constitutional issues that impact the most important areas of people's lives. The Court ruled on matters such as religion, speech, and reproductive health that in some instances, left "we the people" with questions.

Find answers with a deep dive into the details of the cases making headlines at the Annual Constitutional Law Symposium 2022. You'll hear a variety of perspectives on recent decisions impacting religious freedom and survey varying state laws on reproductive rights. Plus, you'll get an insider's account on a regulatory takings case from an attorney who argued the case before the Court and receive updates on constitutional challenges to vaccine mandates.

How you'll benefit:

- Review the U.S. Supreme Court's First Amendment decisions from the last term
- Understand the evolution of the high Court's student speech jurisprudence
- Explore the current state of election law and voting rights
- Examine the status of abortion and reproductive health post-Dobbs

Who should attend:

- Individual rights & liberties attorneys
- Criminal law practitioners
- Appellate lawyers
- Public interest lawyers
- Government lawyers
- School lawyers
