Medicare Secondary Payer 2023: Maximizing Its Potential for Your Clients

Make the most of Medicare

Medicare Secondary Payer (MSP) compliance is notoriously confusing, but it's a must for personal injury and worker's compensation attorneys. Recently, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) made several announcements with new settlement implications. Understanding this ever-changing landscape is key to minimizing your financial risk and to maximizing client recoveries.

At Medicare Secondary Payer: Maximizing Its Potential for Your Clients, you'll receive sound recommendations from a panel of stakeholders and veteran practitioners on compliance issues, settlement best practices, and troubleshooting Medicare Set-Asides. Take an inside look at how insurers interact with CMS and discover how beneficiaries are impacted beyond future medical care.

There will be an answer

Have a niche or particularly challenging question? Join us on March 23 and get answers during a Q&A session with our panel.

How you'll benefit:

- Provide better guidance to your clients on Medicare Secondary Payer issues
- Get practical advice on how to conquer common compliance issues
- Maximize your clients' interests, while minimizing your risk
- Avoid ethical perils in your personal injury or worker's compensation practice

Who should attend:

- Worker's compensation attorneys
- Personal injury lawyers
- Support staff for worker's compensation and personal injury lawyers
- Elder law attorneys
- Insurance claims professionals
- General practitioners
