Water Law Challenges and Opportunities

Soak it in

With plentiful lakes and rivers, the water sources in Wisconsin play a key role in daily lives of residents and businesses. Take a deep dive into the current state of water management and regulation at Water Law Challenges and Opportunities.

Review the authority of the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) on a wide range of permitting issues affecting groundwater. Understand the balancing act necessary between residential and commercial developments with public access to waterfronts, shorelands, and wetlands. Explore these issues and more with the help of experienced practitioners, advocates, and industry representatives.

How you'll benefit:

- Know which water law challenges and programs are priorities for the DNR
- Assess the impact of recent court rulings on groundwater management
- Discuss ways to balance public access with the need for lakebed development
- Learn about recent and proposed waterway and wetland regulations
- Examine the latest proposals to prevent and mitigate pollution from emerging contaminants

Who should attend:

- Environmental lawyers
- Agricultural lawyers
- Residential real estate lawyers
- Commercial real estate lawyers
- Municipal and government lawyers
