Advanced Skills and Techniques for Family Law Practice 2023

Co-produced with the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Counsel confidently

When a marriage is on the rocks and emotions are running high, clients want lawyers with experience handling contentious family law matters. Advanced Skills and Techniques for Family Law Practice 2023 offers sound guidance and best practices to help you rise to the challenges facing modern families.

Experienced family law practitioners will help you develop a plan to manage gender-related custodial disputes in LGBTQ+ families. You'll also pick up strategies for working with immigrant and non-English speaking clients and examine the impact of the U.S. Supreme Court's decision on custody cases under the Indian Child Welfare Act.

How you'll benefit:

- Know how to spot and address custody concerns unique to LGBTQ+ families
- Examine the impact of Haaland v. Brackeen on Native American child custody cases
- Understand how divorce or separation could affect a client's immigration status
- Learn best practices for working with non-English speaking families

Who should attend:

- Family law practitioners
- Guardians ad litem for minors
- Family Court Services professionals
- Family Court Commissioners

Resolve even the most challenging family law cases with the guidance you'll receive at Advanced Skills and Techniques for Family Law Practice 2023. Register now!
