Employment Law Update 2023

Be the boss of these updates

With so many evolving standards and regulations governing workplaces today, one wrong move could trigger a landslide of litigation. But the Employment Law Update 2023 is your guide to the changing terrain of labor and employment law, with comprehensive analysis of hot topics and recent developments.

Find out how artificial intelligence (AI) is changing the workplace and evaluate how traditional labor and employment laws may apply to new AI technologies. Plus, get tips for working with Administrative Law Judges and know which cases before the National Labor Relations Board you should be following.

How you'll benefit:

- Review important federal and state employment law decisions from the past year
- Hear about developments at the National Labor Relations Board
- Explore current and potential uses of artificial intelligence in the workplace
- Learn what employees and employers need to know about mental health under the ADA and FMLA
- Delve into ethical challenges specific to employment law

Who should attend:

- Labor and employment lawyers
- Civil rights/individual rights attorneys
- In-house counsel
- Attorneys advising small businesses
- General practitioners
- Human resources professionals

Equip your practice to handle the latest labor and employment law challenges at the Employment Law Update 2023.
