Annual Constitutional Law Symposium 2023

Decisions, decisions

Highly charged issues from redistricting and speech to affirmative action and abortion are in the spotlight in 2023. And the cases on the docket for the U.S. Supreme Court's next term point to another year of momentous decisions.

Find out how recent opinions and emerging issues are shaping constitutional jurisprudence at the Annual Constitutional Law Symposium 2023. Experienced constitutional law practitioners will guide you through the 2023 decisions already making waves and discuss how the Court's opinion in Dobbs continues to shake up the reproductive rights landscape. You'll also examine the constitutional questions surrounding prosecuting a president.

How you'll benefit:

- Assess the impact of major cases decided by the U.S. Supreme Court in 2023
- Examine the status of abortion and reproductive health post-Dobbs
- Discuss the constitutional implications of a presidential prosecution
- Analyze how affirmative action has and will continue to be impacted by recent decisions
- Understand constitutional matters involved in Wisconsin Chapter 128 receiverships

Who should attend:

- Individual rights & liberties lawyers
- Criminal law practitioners
- Public interest lawyers
- Government lawyers
