3.5 LPM

Family Law Mediation 2023

Endorsed by the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Practice makes perfect

Divorce is emotionally taxing and can be legally complex. Mediation can offer divorcing couples a more expedient and less confrontational alternative to traditional litigation. If you're looking to incorporate mediation into your family practice, join experienced practitioners, mental health professionals, and a child specialist for Family Law Mediation 2023.

Enhance your understanding of the entire mediation process and discover the benefits of expanding your practice to include mediation with self-represented parties. Then, put the mediation techniques you've learned to the test and receive valuable feedback on your performance.

How you'll benefit:

- Receive an overview of the mediation process from start to finish
- Understand the statutory framework governing mediators in Wisconsin
- Know how to draw the line between advocate and mediator
- Assess the value of child specialists in custody and placement cases
- Practice the skills you need to incorporate mediation in your practice

Who should attend:

- Family law attorneys
- Family law mediators
- Children's mental health professionals
- General practitioners
