Choosing the Appropriate Business Entity

Endorsed by the Young Lawyers Division of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Strictly business

Selection of the right business structure and proper formation sets the stage for success throughout the life of a business. The type of entity selected affects a business's ability to weather regulatory changes, as well as financial ups and downs. Position yourself to provide reliable counsel to your clients and help get their businesses started off on the right foot with Choosing the Appropriate Business Entity.

Whether you're new to business formation or want a review of key principles, find informative discussions on how the main components of each entity compare to one another. Our panelists will tie everything together as they apply the program concepts to relevant hypothetical fact patterns.

How you'll benefit:

- Learn the basics of choosing and forming various types of business entities
- Understand the governance structures and fiduciary duties for each type of entity
- Analyze tax considerations associated with each type of entity
- Know the latest legislative and regulatory updates affecting business entities
- Apply these concepts to real-life examples to determine the most suitable business structure for specific situations

Who should attend:

- Attorneys new to business entity formation
- Business lawyers
- Tax lawyers
- General practitioners
- New lawyers seeking a foundation in business law

Get in on the ground floor of effective business formation with Choosing the Appropriate Business Entity.
