Advanced Skills & Techniques for Family Law Practice 2024

Endorsed by the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Frayed family ties

When a marriage on the rocks is further complicated by factors such as domestic abuse or conflicts between a parent and child, clients need counsel with experience handling complicated family law matters. Advanced Skills and Techniques for Family Law Practice 2024 will give you the guidance and practical advice you need to rise to the challenge.

Experienced family law practitioners will explain the kinds of situations most suited for reunification therapy, how treatment is evaluated in batterers treatment programs, best practices for preparing “problem” clients for interviews, and more.

HOW YOU’LL BENEFIT

- Receive a comprehensive review of new child support calculation guidelines
- Learn how reunification therapy can be integrated into custody and placement disputes
- Hear tips on preparing clients for interviews with a GAL or a family study
- Understand the role of batterers treatment programs in domestic abuse cases
- Determine what steps you should take in a child abduction case
- Know how to report and substantiate suspected child abuse

Resolve even the most challenging family law cases with the guidance you’ll receive at Advanced Skills & Techniques for Family Law Practice 2024. Register today!
