Public Records, Open Meetings Update 2025

Co-produced with the Government Lawyers Division of the State Bar of Wisconsin

Any requests?

Public Records, Open Meetings Update 2025 tackles the complex questions attorneys face at the intersection of transparency and privacy, from redacting sensitive information in records to convening legally sound meetings. Receive practical guidance for handling, disclosing, and safeguarding employee records in compliance with state and federal law, and learn where public bodies and employers commonly go wrong. Attorneys of all experience levels will sharpen their understanding of when transparency is required—and when discretion is essential. Register now!

HOW YOU'LL BENEFIT

- Learn how to help clients avoid common procedural missteps in closed meetings
- Understand what personnel records must be shared and what can be protected from disclosure
- Break down the overlap between FOIA and state law requirements for handling employment information
- Recognize when counsel should get involved in the records request process
- Gain practical context for how journalists use public records laws
- Unpack the year's most impactful public records and open meetings decisions
