Labor Law: Current Issues and Updates 2025

Labor law in flux

Labor and employment law is evolving rapidly. From leadership departures at the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) to new administrative policies, court decisions, and changing workplace norms, the landscape is shifting in ways that affect businesses, employees, and government entities alike. Labor Law: Current Issues and Updates 2025 provides essential updates and actionable strategies to help you take on today's complex labor law environment.

HOW YOU'LL BENEFIT

- Stay current on critical labor and employment law developments affecting your clients and practice
- Learn how recent actions by the current administration could impact the NLRB's role in labor disputes
- Understand evolving rules around restrictive covenants and how to draft enforceable agreements
- Gain practical strategies for advising clients about diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) policies while minimizing legal risk
- Prepare for situations involving employees' off-duty conduct and employers' responses

Don't fall behind. Protect your clients with critical insights into what's ahead with Labor Law: Current Issues and Updates 2025.
