

About the Authors

Kent L. Schlienger is a member of the Madison law firm Neider & Boucher, S.C. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1982 and his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1985. Mr. Schlienger's practice focuses on entity formation and governance, mergers and acquisitions, and private equity and venture capital financing. Mr. Schlienger was one of the coauthors of the original edition of this book published in 1991 and has been the primary author of its subsequent supplements and revised editions. He has also been a presenter in CLE seminars sponsored by the State Bar of Wisconsin PINNACLE, including most recently on the topic of the Corporate Transparency Act, and is the author of an article on the same topic that appeared in Wisconsin Lawyer.

Joseph W. Boucher is a shareholder of Neider & Boucher, S.C., where his practice emphasizes business legal planning for closely held businesses. Mr. Boucher received his B.A. degree from St. Norbert College and his J.D. and M.B.A. degrees from the University of Wisconsin and is a certified public accountant. He taught business law at the Wisconsin School of Business and has spoken numerous times for professional associations. He served on the State Bar of Wisconsin subcommittee that helped draft 2021 Wis. Act 258, which, among other matters, updated Wisconsin's limited liability company (LLC) law in 2022. He chaired the State Bar Subcommittee on LLCs, was a co-drafter of Wis. Stat. ch 183 for LLCs, and participated in the drafting of the limited liability partnership law. He is a coauthor of the original edition of Organizing a Wisconsin Business Corporation (State Bar of Wis. 1991), and LLCs and LLPs: A Wisconsin Handbook (State Bar of Wis. 9th ed. 2026). He has coauthored several articles for the State Bar's Wisconsin Lawyer magazine and the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants' On Balance.

Charles E. Neider is a founding shareholder and the president of Neider & Boucher, S.C. His practice is focused on business law, including business formation, financing, tax, operational, and governance matters. He represents closely held companies in a variety of industries, including real estate, construction, professional services, insurance, food services, life sciences, and high technology. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1971 and his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1975. Mr. Neider was a coauthor of the original edition of the State Bar of Wisconsin publication Organizing a Wisconsin Business Corporation (State Bar of Wis. 1991).

Attorney Michelle A. Behnke and former Wisconsin attorney Claire J. Holtz also contributed to the original edition of this book in 1991.
